The Rev. William Roulston McKean, chairman, presented the Report of The Committee on the Dispatch of Business which on Motion was adopted as follows:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title where feasible, and as an effort is to be made to transact the work of Convention in one full day, that discussion be curtailed as far as possible.

This year being the first in the second half of the twentieth century, we have been flooded with articles and books on what has happened to our world during the first half of this century. Many have contended that those of us who have lived through the past fifty years have seen more violent changes on the face of the earth than in all the preceding fifty centuries of recorded history. Whether this is an accurate appraisal or not, certainly it is a fact that the past half century has been one of vertiginous change. You are well aware of the fact that our people are confused, fearful and at times hysterical.

I am convinced, and I believe that you are also, that the Christian Church possesses the answer. If I do not dwell at length on the problems, it is because I am sure that you are well aware of them. We are here to think of the Christian answer, and more particularly how the Diocese of Pennsylvania can better give that answer to the world. We know that the answer cannot be divorced from the life of the fellowship and I hope that our decisions at this Convention will clearly demonstrate that we have in our faith, the power, the wisdom, the insight and the vision to meet the desperate needs of men today. Recently, a writer accused religionists of glibly claiming that they possessed the answer and added this comment, "But one would not suspect that such is the case by reading the religious books published during the past year." Will one suspect that the Christian Church has the answer by what we do at this Convention? Does the life of our diocese through the worship, the sacraments, the pastoral work, the fellowship itself give convincing proof of our claim that the Church possesses the answer? Have we at the center of our parish life a redeeming fellowship?

Bishop Remington is retiring on June 13th. He and Mrs. Remington plan to make their home in Rancho Santa Fe, California. We are sorry that they are moving so far away but we look forward to their return for visits from time to time. Both Bishop and Mrs. Remington have worked unceasingly to advance the work of the diocese. There have been times when he wanted me to do things that I could not do because a diocesan bishop's authority is much more limited than that of a missionary bishop. Bishop Remington has given special attention to the Department of Christian Social Relations and more particularly to the institutions which have a real or a nominal connection with the diocese. In many instances we have not made the progress that he would have liked to see us make but he has done much to clear the atmosphere and to give us all a clearer picture of what our institutions are doing now and what they should do in the future.

Bishop Remington began his ministry in this diocese. We are glad that he could return here, where he and Mrs. Remington have such a host of friends, to finish his active ministry. "Active ministry" is merely a technical expression in regard to Bishop Remington. The general canons require a bishop to resign when he reaches his seventy-second birthday. This is only a rule adopted by our Church for purposes of administration. Bishop Remington will certainly not cease to have an active ministry. He received his marching orders from Our Lord and he will continue to serve Him as long as he lives. We pray that he and Mrs. Remington will have many more happy years together in Our Lord's service.

The Standing Committee has authorized me to secure the services of one or more retired bishops for confirmations next year. I feel sure that we shall be able to meet your requirements. I should like to say that during the time that we have had two Suffragans, I have had a free Sunday once in awhile—that is "free" in the sense that I did not have a confirmation appointment for that Sunday. This has enabled me to visit parishes for services other than confirmation. I have greatly enjoyed these occasions and at least, for me, they meant that the Bishop of a Diocese was not just a confirming machine.

At the meeting of the House of Bishops in El Paso in January, I was somewhat mystified by the number of bishops who complimented me on the wonderful growth in the number of communicants in our diocese. Frankly, I did not know what they were talking about and I didn't want to ask and thereby show ignorance of my own diocese. When I got home, it occurred to me to look at the figures in the Living Church Annual. According to the figures for 1948 reported by you in 1949, our diocese was at the very bottom of the list of dioceses in the status of communicant growth, in fact you showed a decrease in number of communicants of 10.66%. This was the largest decrease shown by any diocese or missionary district. Your figures for 1949, as reported in 1950, jumped our diocese from the bottom to second from the top—only the Missionary Districts of Alaska and Mexico beating us by a small fraction of a point. Your figures showed an increase of 13.54%. I cannot tell what the figures for 1950 will be because some of you failed to get your Annual Parochial Reports in by February first.

I know how difficult it is to make out the Annual Parochial Report but I again ask vestries to go over it at their January meeting and see to it that the figures given have some relation to the facts.

A better indication of our growth is the number of confirmations. Here our figures are not impressive. The total number confirmed in 1949 was 2,923. In addition, there were 75 received from the Roman Catholic Church. The figures for 1950 were 3,309 confirmed and 95 received, a total of 3,404. As a minimum we ought to average four thousand confirmations a year. We could easily do this if the vestries would lead their congregations in securing candidates for confirmation. Some parishes have found it helpful to have more than one confirmation service a year. It has been suggested that next spring I hold six regional confirmation services. I shall be glad to do so if you think that such services would be helpful.

At present we do have a confirmation service every Monday afternoon in the Bishop's Chapel in the Church House. I realize that this Chapel is a make-shift and that some of the clergy do not like to bring their candidates to this Chapel. It is small and sometimes very crowded, but it does emphasize the fact that those confirmed are members of the church everywhere, not just in one parish.

Recently I read an excellent book on parish work by a Roman priest. In it, he said that some of their parishes have as high as one-third of their communicants move in the course of a year. The average with our parishes is by no means so high but the live parish will be keenly aware at all times of the facts concerning its own communicant strength.

In some instances, where shifts in population have left a parish unable to carry on alone, vestries have found it desirable to secure the part-time services of a rector of another parish. An example of this is St. Andrew's, West Philadelphia and St. John the Evangelist, South Philadelphia. Such an arrangement demands more work and greater responsibility on the part of the congregations. The vestries of the above named parishes seem to me to be meeting this challenge in a very fine way. If the arrangement continues to work out as splendidly as it has started, it will not only help to solve the problem of the shortage of the clergy but it will also indicate that it is healthy for the laymen to have more responsibility in the parish. Another instance of this dual arrangement is Good Shepherd, Kensington and Emmanuel, Kensington. Great progress has been made at St. Nathanael's, North Philadelphia under the leadership of the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach and the devoted service of Mr. Wm. A. Guerrazzi, lay reader. The list of the accomplishments of this parish in 1950 is a tribute to the enthusiasm and zeal of the congregation. They mean it when they say in their parish leaflet—"The light of our church has never burned brighter, has never faced a greater future, has never been placed in such a favorable, challenging position."

We are faced with an increasing mobile population. People moving from one part of the diocese to another sometimes find it difficult to follow the service in the nearest parish to them. Irresponsible individualism and liturgical license are divisive and dangerous and mar the witness which our Church should be making. A bishop or priest is deficient in a sense of pastoral responsibility who markedly alters the prescribed public worship to satisfy his individual preferences.

The Editor of the Church News says, "1950 was marked by an unusual upsurge in construction of Churches, Parish Houses and Rectories. It has been many years since so much building has been under way within the borders of the Diocese of Pennsylvania." New Church construction has included:

Holy Apostles, Penn Wynne
St. Alban's, Newtown Square
All Saints, Rhawnhurst
St. Christopher's, Gladwynne
Ascension, West Chester
Trinity, Solebury (enlarged)

Parish House Extensions:

Advent, Kennett Square
St. John's, Lansdowne
Good Samaritan, Paoli
St. David's, Radnor
St. John's, Concord
St. Stephen's, Clifton Heights
Trinity Swarthmore (purchased house for parish organizations and Church School uses—enlargement of Church now under construction)

Rectories finished or under construction:

Trinity, Solebury
St. Peter's, Broomall (Rectory purchased)
Emmanuel, Quakertown
All Saints, Crescentville
St. Philip-in-the-fields, Oreland

The above list does not include new organs and other church furniture.

I want to commend the parishes who have plans for keeping in touch with the men who are serving in the Armed Forces. For the time being, I have asked the Rev. Thomas A. Meryweather to act as the Diocesan Chairman of our Armed Forces Committee. The detail work is being handled by the Department of Christian Social Relations at the Church House.

The following request came to me recently from the bishop of New Jersey, "Have I your permission to use the first page of your Diocesan magazine in re: your directions to take care of men in Armed Forces. I trust so, for I have had it reprinted on a card, both sides, to hang in the vestibule of each church. Many, many thanks." This material was arranged for the Church News by the Rev. Harry Paynter, Editor. If you have not read it, be sure to do so.

Recently, I received a letter from one of our Chaplains in which he said, "Every day I receive letters from this organization or that organization asking me what I desire in the way of help as a Chaplain in the Armed Forces. The greatest need at the moment is to have Churchmen make themselves known. It is an appalling thing, I think, that out of a camp containing twenty-eight thousand people, there are only seventy-eight known Episcopalians. It is my personal thought that the Church must make a great effort to instruct her young men to get in contact with their Chaplains, or perhaps it is an indictment against the teaching that we are doing throughout the Church that our servicemen do not feel the need for the ministrations of the Church while in service."

I have received news about men from this diocese who have made great efforts to make their Communions and to keep in touch with the Church. I hope that all of our parishes will encourage all of our men to do this. We cannot have an Episcopal Chaplain with every outfit, but we can do everything in our power to overcome the difficulties which our men and women will face in the Armed Forces.

In 1942 our Missionary Funds were divided 50-50 with the National Church. We gave to the National Church $118,221.24 and we spent a like amount on our work within the Diocese. This year we have accepted a Quota of $300,000.00 for the National Church and our Diocesan Missionary Budget is $152,104.79. The The Quota assigned to us for 1951 was $324,943.00, so we are a minus diocese to the extent of about $25,000.00. I think that it is fair, however, to say that we have tried to keep the diocesan budget as low as possible in order to enable us to pay more to the National Church. We are now dividing our missionary funds about 66% to the National Church and 34% to ourselves.

There are two or three comments that I would like to make:

1. In 1950 we were able to end the year without a deficit due to the generous attitude of many of our parishes and missions. The overpayment of some $13,000.00 which was voluntarily made by parishes and missions is evidence of the finest spirit. We should thank God and take courage.

2. At the same time we have to admit that Episcopalians often do not give their Church the place it should have in their generosity. According to the figures published by the United Stewardship Council for forty-eight (48) religious bodies, Episcopalians stood twenty-seventh (27th). For missionary giving the Seventh Day Adventists stood first with per member contributions of $114.61. The average for Episcopalians was $7.41. The remedy for this sad situation is a better and continuing teaching of the principles of Stewardship as related to the giving of life, abilities and money.

Last year you decided to launch a Diocesan Advancement Campaign for $400,000.00. The full amount has not been realized but I want to pay my tribute to Mr. Daniel Newhall and his associates for their untiring efforts and for the progress which has been made. Since our last Convention, I have been in touch with several dioceses who have Revolving Building Funds and they all emphasize the great blessing such a Fund has been to their diocese in rehabilitating missionary chapel and in starting new work. I hope that the laymen will continue this good work until we have a Revolving Fund of sufficient size to enable us to seize an opportunity at the right moment. Churches do not just happen. They must be built. Many of us have enjoyed the privilege of worshipping in a church built by others. Now we have the opportunity of helping to build a church for a congregation which is not able to build it themselves.

Bishop Armstrong is chairman of a strong Committee who have charge of the Bryan Green Mission, to be held at the Convention Hall December 2 to December 11. The purpose of this Mission is two-fold: (1) to arouse our own Church people and make them more faithful and devoted communicants and (2) to reach the unchurched in our diocese. If we could bring five percent (5%) of the unchurched who are living in our area to confirmation, we would double the number of our communicants. My experience with Missions and my investigation of the Bryan Green revivals in New York, Boston, Washington and Houston convince me that a great deal of the good from such Missions lies in the preparation and follow-up. Some of the clergy in these various places have told me that they considered the Mission "a waste of time." The consensus of opinion seems to be that those parishes which took an active part in the Mission profited the most. I believe that God can use this Mission for great good to our city and diocese. We are bound to be disappointed—and ought to be—if we think that we are importing a priest from England to do for us what we do not want to bother about ourselves. If we all throw ourselves into this Mission and ask God to use us, great good can be accomplished. I hope that your parish will not leave its part in the preparation to the last weeks before the Mission.

"Preach to the People" was the advice given by the angel to Peter and John when they were released from prison. In the diary of John Wesley you will find many days beginning with this sentence, "Today I went to X place and there I offered Christ to the people." Pope Pius XII, in a message to the Pastors of Rome in 1946 said, "The real parish is your people".

Our parishes consist of at least four different groups.

I—The first group are the faithful; those who are active in the parish and are regular in their attendance at the services. With this group, our temptation is two-fold: some Rectors and Vestries are content to rest in this oasis. As long as they minister to this group they are satisfied. The second temptation is to be satisfied with the spiritual condition of this group. When I was rector of St. John's Church, Washington, Bishop Rhinelander used to impress upon me the need of "sanctifying the faithful". It is extremely difficult for us to believe in the spiritual possibilities of our own people because it is most difficult for us to believe in our own spiritual possibilities. We can well understand why the Vestry of another parish will take great leadership in assembling a confirmation class but we are inclined to say that our own Vestry are more or less 'dead wood' and incapable of such leadership. We sometimes fail to realize that the strongest and ablest of our young men might have a real vocation for the Priesthood which they might miss because the Rector and Vestry do not do what they could do to present the matter clearly to them.

II—The second group in our parishes are the indifferent. Some are indifferent because they know very little about the Church's faith and practice. Some are weak-willed and some are worn out by the work and pleasure of the week. Sunday is looked upon as the tail end of a hard week instead of the first day of the new week. The Rector and Vestry should be keenly alive to the needs of this group. In my own ministry, I have been often surprised by how little interest would change one of this indifferent group to a very active member. I remember visiting a man who had not been in church but once or twice a year for many years. He told me that I was the first minister who had been in his home in twenty years. He started coming to church regularly and until he died, rarely missed making his Communion each Sunday. Once I went into the office of the President of a great manufacturing concern. He was a Steward in the Methodist Church. I noticed on his desk a list of names and I ventured to ask him about it. He told me that each Steward in his church had the responsibility of fifty families and these were his families. Every Monday, he went carefully over the list to see if there was something that he could do to bring the indifferent nearer to the center of the life of the fellowship. In one parish that I know, they used, at every service, the Prayer for the Absent in Family Prayers. This was not done perfunctorily. I knew of one member of that parish who always sat on the back seat, and then, with great tact and devotion, called up ten people who were members of the parish and who were not present at the service. At least it reminded those who were indifferent and who were out of touch with the parish life that they were missed. I would certainly join with John Wesley and the Pope in urging our own Rectors and Vestrymen to give special attention to this group.

III—The third group are those who are openly hostile. They have been baptised and confirmed but have repudiated the whole thing. We generally carry them on the parish rolls as "inactive members." It is not up to us to pass judgment upon them. We should pray for them and invite them to return to their Father's House. Here, if we are really in earnest, miracles will happen.

IV—The fourth group are the non-Churchmen, those who are not active members of any Church. In most cases, they will be good-natured pagans. I would suggest that you divide your area into sections and put two or three laymen in charge of each section. Certainly in areas where there are a great many new houses being built the Vestry should see to it that everyone of these homes is visited, to find out if there are any Episcopalians in the homes or if the people are already active in some other Church. Those who are not active in any Church should be invited to the parish. We need to be reminded that the Church is but one generation removed from extinction. Each successive generation must be won for our Lord and His Church.

APPENDIX B

Annual Report of
The Rt. Rev. Wm. P. Remington, Suffragan Bishop

With this report, my period of service in the Diocese of Pennsylvania terminates. Needless to say, I am grateful for the many opportunities you have given both Mrs. Remington and myself to take part in the many activities of a great Diocese. God indeed has set before the City of Philadelphia, and particularly the Protestant Episcopal Church which was born here, a door which no man can shut. We have more than a little strength and have not denied His Name. In my college days, I used to think that the battles for Christ and His Kingdom were fought out in the great areas of population, in the slums of great cities where the forces of evil multiplied "in haunts of wretchedness and need on shadowed thresholds dark with fears." Then my long trek to the frontiers began and the problem of the small town and its Main Streets made me aware that evil is no respecter of either persons or places.

Coming back to my native city, now more than doubled in population since I left in 1911, was like returning to old places greatly changed in outward appearance but still wrestling with the same problems of old customs unhallowed by fresh insights and sins unrepented and therefore unforgiven. The amazing thing to my youthful spirit and Westernized mind was the difficulty many people found in the City of Philadelphia of effecting changes which were long overdue. It seemed to me that we had incorporated "as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end" into our thinking about things connected with either politics or religion. Things which I thought quite possible of achievement proved very hard to accomplish: It took so long to decide on a course of action; so many resolvings in Convention, readjustments in administration, rotating committees and vestries. I do not mean that these walls of custom and tradition did not make their appearance in many parts of the West, but it was much easier to climb over them or break them down.

Philadelphia has always had many churches too near together. A good many of them should be amalgamated and the combined church continue its work in the same neighborhood. I never realized before how possible it was for the Episcopal Church to become in effect a congregational church, each parish the master of its own affairs and lord of its own domain. Many places were abandoned after they could no longer pay expenses with income from endowments and the contributions from members of a shrinking congregation. The challenge of the community remained but no way was found of adapting the old church to new needs. Great vast areas springing into life have only received recently the attention they deserved.

These were the missionary problems and with those I was not particularly confronted. Bishop Hart gave me other problems with which to wrestle: Diocesan institutions. I found many of these had gotten away from the Church and were now looking to the Community Chest through the Red Feather Services for their support. It is a matter of very great thankfulness to me that this problem of putting the Church back again into these agencies can now be undertaken by a person trained both in the Church and Christian social service.

In previous addresses, I have reported on this work that I have been doing and I leave with the feeling that some progress has been made but much remains to be done. We shall not bring the situation under control by the passing of canons. It will have to be done through careful studies and the application of expert knowledge and understanding of the problems.

The work with which I have been occupied chiefly has been a spiritual one. The privilege of preaching and bringing to over 8,000 persons the Rite of Confirmation. It is this great function of a Bishop that has impressed itself upon my mind and heart indelibly. The preparation of children and adults for confirmation seems to me to need greater thought than perhaps some of us have given it. It is not enough to teach Bible, Church, and the Offices of Instruction. We must demand more than we have demanded in the past. We should have a greater degree of commitment. We should feel that the service is an opportunity for pledging to Christ and His Church a life which must be renewed continuously by the power of the Holy Spirit and strengthened with weekly celebrations of the Holy Communion. The gift of God's Holy Spirit is continuous. It is needed in every period of life from the cradle to the grave. Boys and girls are faced with new experiences as they pass from the grade school into high school and so into college, married life, building up a home, and even middle life and old age. It is the Church's duty to penetrate each of these experiences with new insights. Pennsylvania does need a new outpouring of the Spirit, a new evangelism, a more definite commitment to Christ, and a continuing experience in the way of the Church. If we can get that, there will be fewer lapsed communicants.

Furthermore, I have the conviction that most of our financial worries are due not to a lack or ability to give but to our indifference to the call of Christ. Conferences in which we can develop new understandings of God's Will are of primary necessity. Our need for a Diocesan Conference Center looms up even greater than ever. Particularly do our youth need such a place where they can build up a program for the whole Diocese. We are still meeting at Haverford College and out at Valley Forge. What wonderful things could be done if we could get all the youth of the Diocese feeling a sense of fellowship, meeting in their own Diocesan Center, and building up a common program.

Pennsylvania has been and still is a great Missionary Diocese. We have given both of our wealth and of our sons and daughters. Now we must learn to apply that sense of Mission to our own untilled fields. The light will shine farthest which is brightest at home.

Another matter which seems a little disconcerting is that Episcopalians have a way of giving more largely to causes not particularly connected with the Church than to their own institutions. There is a great body of workers in the Diocese of Pennsylvania whose loyalty and ability I have come to realize as a tremendous potential. We all need to be aroused, to be inspired, and to go forward with fresh zeal and vigor. Through this potential of leadership we can do almost anything that we set our minds to do. The Bryan Green Mission is attracting new leadership and we thank God and take new courage.

We stand in great jeopardy in our modern life. Men's hearts are failing them for fear looking at those things which are happening upon the earth. Insecurity and obscurity surround us. The mists have been penetrated by the acids of sin corrupting nearly all our common life and creating what we call "smog." It is a hard atmosphere to breathe and seems to be the product of modern life. It has been accentuated by the wars through which humanity has gone. We strike valiantly against our ancient foes: wickendness in high places, greed and covetousness, and ever with the inhumanity of man to man in all our relations. The task is great but with the greatness of the task should come the power to accomplish. The wrath of man can be turned into the glory of God. The soldiers plaited a crown of thorns to place upon the brow of the Reedemer. That has become now the crown of glory. The Church still has but one problem: to lift up the Cross of Christ that all men may be drawn to it; to preach the Resurrection that all men will find new life; to worship the ascended King and give back to Him the power and the glory which we have accorded to man; to dwell constantly in the power of God's Holy Spirit so that the life of the Church will be penetrated again and again with new insights and old ways and old customs will be transformed until they are more in accord with the life and teachings of our Lord.

You will find complete reports of my activities in summary of statistics in the Bishop's address and in my Diary.

APPENDIX C

The Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong, Suffragan Bishop

With a full trust in God and with a heart full of gratefulness for the way in which His work has been and is being carried on as I have seen since my consecration in the late fall of 1949, I would tell you that I return thanks to Almighty God for the strength and vigor that I have found in the life of this Diocese in both clergy and laity. I am grateful for the kindliness and ready cooperation that I have met on every hand.

Missionary Enterprise

My primary interest and work has been the aided parishes and missions of the Diocese and the challenge always before us of the unchurched thousands of people beyond the purview of any established work of our beloved Church in our area. After consultation with Bishop Hart and prayer on the part of both of your Bishops, we have determined upon a policy for purposes of establishing new work, or recommending the change of location of established work to follow the study made by committees composed of clergymen and laymen from the Convocations in which the contemplated new work or old work falls. Only after the study of people who know the area and who know the peculiar needs, opportunities, and difficulties, as only those who live within an area can, do recommendations come before the Department of Missions. In this way, the work of the Deans is substantially strengthened and our parish clergy and lay members of our parishes come to be better informed about the life of the Church within our responsibility. As a result of this, we have had several meetings of the Department of Missions where there has been full discussion with its attendant opportunity to vote with knowledge as well as with faith on several important considerations. It is to be hoped that this extension of the responsibility for decision will develop within our fellow church members both a deeper understanding of the life of the Diocese and a more loving consecration on the part of all. We ask your continued co-operation and your prayers in this direction.

Parish Visitations

There have been so many times during the past years when I could have wished that every member of the Church could have been with me or stood beside me as I have gone to parishes and found churches filled with people whose faith showed the power of God's love to cast out fear. I can remember in particular one Sunday when at 7:30 in the morning for an early Communion service I turned in the chancel to see a full church with every member of the confirmation class dressed and ready for confirmation which was not to occur until 11 o'clock. The entire congregation shared in the early morning the Blessed Sacrament and we went in a body to the parish house where we had breakfast together and returned to the church for a magnificent and moving service during which several people were given the gift of the Holy Spirit in confirmation. It was 1:30 before that congregation went their ways to their various homes, but it was a Bishop who was filled with strength and courage, albeit physically tired, who went on from that congregation after five hours of prayer, praise, thanksgiving, and fellowship. In its exact detail this experience was unique and yet in the substance of the fellowship and its strength it has been repeated time after time after time.

It has been a most moving experience to give for God through His Church and therefore for you through human hands placed upon the head of person after person the life-giving strength and joy and redeeming power of God's Holy Spirit. One can feel pulsating through one's hands the yearning upward surge of a human soul towards God for which we may all be eternally grateful.

The unfailing kindliness and courtesy of clergymen, vestrymen, and parishioners alike is a source of great joy. One clergyman even went so far as to provide from his own vestment cabinet the missing white garment for a Bishop who forgot his rochet that day.

Bryan Green Mission

Bishop Hart has given to me the responsibilty for the organization necessary to prepare for and promote the Bryan Green Mission of the Diocese of Pennsylvania to be held from December 2 through 11, 1951 at Convention Hall in Philadelphia. During the last two months I have asked very busy and very capable men and women to give to this their talents, their time, and their strength as chairmen of the various committees necessary to prepare for such a vast enterprise. The willingness to give of their time, often representing thousands of dollars, the wise counsel and ready willingness to serve that I have found on every had augurs well of a deep commitment to the mission of the Church to the winning and enlivening souls in the service of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. There can be no question of the deep desire that moves men's hearts in our time to know, to love, and to serve God. There's no question in my mind that this can represent the love and consecration of the people of this Diocese and so there can be no question about the success of this great venture of faith which we are undertaking together. I know your interest and I know that you will join in praying about it and interesting others to talk about it and giving your time and your strength to make these meetings as fruitful as it is possible for them to be if every person who is led by the Holy Spirit comes to Convention Hall.

Conclusion

Mrs. Armstrong would join me in thanking the many people of this Diocese whom she has met for their kindliness and hospitality. We are grateful indeed for the lovely home which has been bought for us on Roberts Road in Bryn Mawr and in which we are very comfortable and in which we hope to entertain many of you in the years to come.

I would take this opportunity to thank you for your confidence in me and to ask your prayers to be added to mine that God will give me the grace from day to day to be adequate to each challenge, privilege, and responsibility with which I am confronted and may the Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the placing of a $20,000 mortgage on the Church property of All Saints Church, Rhawnhurst.

The Standing Committee gave its consent to the placing of a $5,900 mortgage on the Church property of the Church of the Atonement, Morton, at the S.W. corner of Franklin Avenue and Amosland Road, Morton.

The Standing Committee was notified by the Bishop that the Presiding Bishop had received from Bishop Remington his resignation from the office of Suffragan Bishop in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, consequent upon his attainment of the age of seventy-two on March 13, 1951, the resignation to become effective June 13, 1951.

The Standing Committee authorized the sale of the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House, 352 Penn Road, Wynnewood, now occupied by Bishop Remington, for occupancy after July 1, 1951, when Bishop Remington will vacate the property because of his retirement.

The Standing Committee approved the purchase of a property at 126 North Roberts Road, Bryn Mawr, for $42,750, to be used as a residence for Bishop Armstrong, and voted that this property be designated the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House when the property at 352 Penn Road, Wynnewood, is vacated by Bishop Remington on or before July 1, 1951.

At a special meeting of the Standing Committee held on January 11, 1951, at the Church House, Philadelphia, the President of the Standing Committee presented a Petition from the Vestry of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, asking the dissolution of the existing pastoral relation in that Parish, which petition had been submitted to the Bishop by the Vestry of St. Mark's Church under Canon 46 of General Convention, and had been forwarded by the Bishop to the Standing Committee for its advice and counsel. This meeting was attended by the Chancellor of the Diocese.

At a special meeting of the Standing Committee held on February 20, 1951, at the Church House, Philadelphia, the Answer of the Rev. Dr. William H. Dunphy, Rector of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, to the said Petition filed by the Vestry of St. Mark's Church was read by the Rev. William N. Parker, a friend of Dr. Dunphy. This meeting was attended by the Bishop, the Chancellor of the Diocese, Dr. Dunphy, Mr. Parker, and a committee representing the Vestry of St. Mark's Church.

Subsequently, a special meeting of the Standing Committee was held on March 16, 1951, at the Church House, Philadelphia, when again the Bishop, the Chancellor of the Diocese, Dr. Dunphy and his friend, Mr. Parker, Ernest Scott, Esq., representing the Vestry of St. Mark's Church, and Mr. Everett G. Rodebaugh, a court stenographer, were present. The Standing Committee officially received the Petition of the Vestry of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, under Canon 46 of General Convention, requesting the dissolution of the existing pastoral relation in that Parish. The Committee also received officially the Answer of the Rev. Dr. Dunphy to the Petition. Formal testimony was presented by each party and a record made by Mr. Rodebaugh, to be placed on file in the Bishop's Office.

Both the Rector and Vestry of St. Mark's Church asked the Bishop to act as judge as to who should vote for Vestrymen of St. Mark's Church at the Easter Election of 1951, and each agreed to accept the Bishop's decision as final. At a stated meeting of the Standing Committee held on March 30, 1951, at the Church House, Philadelphia, the Committee received from the Bishop a copy of his opinion and decision In the Matter of the Qualified Electors for Vestrymen of St. Mark's Church in the City of Philadelphia, dated March 19, 1951.

At a stated meeting of the Standing Committee held on April 24, 1951, at the Church House, Philadelphia, a letter dated April 9, 1951, addressed to the Committee by the Bishop, was read, in which the Bishop stated that the differences between the Rector and the Vestry of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, had not been settled by his godly judgment, and he asked the advice and counsel of the Standing Committee under Canon 46 of General Convention. By formal resolution the Standing Committee gave its advice and counsel to the Bishop.

The Bishop, by letter dated April 26, 1951, informed the Standing Committee that he had dissolved the existing pastoral relation between St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, and its Rector, the Rev. Dr. William H. Dunphy, as of July 1, 1951, subject to financial settlements.

APPENDIX H

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE FOR THE YEAR 1950

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1950, audited by Charles S. Rockey & Co., certified public accountants, is submitted herewith.

Decreases will be noted in the sums received for the Presiding Bishop's Fund, $1,111.30, and Episcopal Hospital, $4,476.74. An increase of $2,067.49 was registered by the Lenten Offering which totaled $65,509.47.

The accepted proportionate share of $360,734.90 was overpaid by $17,176.10, largely due to the efforts of 112 churches and missions. Had the 18 others, who still owed $5,311.66 at the year-end, met their acceptances, our record would have been better. While this overpayment was not as large as 1949, it must be remembered our missionary budget was approximately $17,000. more and we increased our pledge to the National Church by approximately $8,400. to $222,287. which was paid in full.

Out of overpayments and lapsed balances of previous years, notable special appropriations for missionary work within the Diocese were $20,000 towards a rectory at Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown, $3,000. for work among unchurched Jews, and $10,350. for three years salary and pension for Chaplain, Holy Apostles, Penn Wynne.

These results for the year demonstrate anew that under the leadership of our Bishops, the clergy and laity are responding to the call of missions.

The Treasurer here records his debt to the late Joshua Ash Pearson who served as Assistant Treasurer from April 1943 until his death on December 2, 1950. His wise counsel was invaluable. We are fortunate in his successor, Mr. William G. Foulke, who was elected by the Standing Committee on January 23, 1951.

No report would be complete without proper recognition of the efficient, loyal and painstaking work of the Church House Staff.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. DRAYTON
Treasurer

APPENDIX I

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, PROPERTY AND PROMOTION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

The Department of Finance met bi-monthly except during the summer of 1950 and gave constant thought and study to the many financial problems confronting the Diocese throughout the year.

The Department of Property and the Department of Promotion are sub departments under Finance. Their Reports are separate.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards, a sub-committee of the Department of Finance, meets at the call of the chair and its report will be found elsewhere in the JOURNAL.

The Department notes with pleasure that all bills of the Diocese and its Expectation to the National Council for 1950, have been paid in full. The Diocese had not been able to accept the $324,943 assigned by the National Council because what the parishes and missions accepted was short $35,000. The Executive Council approved $300,000 for the National Council. The Budget will need at least $11,000 over and above the accepted proportionate share to balance the present budget.

The Department recommended to the Executive Council that a gift for expenses of $150.00 be given to the Vicars under the Diocesan Budget in 1951 with the request that the Mission contribute a like amount in 1951. This gift was made possible out of the lapsed balances of the Budget of 1950.

It is with deep regret that the Department of Finance announces the passing of a most faithful and efficient Chairman, Mr. Joshua Ash Pearson who died December 2, 1950. Mr. Pearson also served the Diocese as Assistant Treasurer.

The Standing Committee, under canon, filled the vacancy of Assistant Treasurer by electing Mr. William G. Foulke, of Provident Trust Co. The Department of Finance and the Executive Council elected Edward B. Clay Chairman of the Department of Finance.

EDWARD B. CLAY,

Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

During the year 1950, this Department received requests from twelve Parishes or Missions for a representative to meet with their Parish Committees or Vestries for a general talk on their every member canvass or other sources for raising income and the relation of their administration of that income to their fixed expenses and the manner of accounting for these funds.

At the time of writing this report two additional parishes that have not previously had C.P.A. Audits, have indicated, they are going to have such an audit this year.

The whole attitude of these committees or vestries was most constructively helpful and indicates (with very few exceptions) a willingness to comply with all of the provisions of CANON XVI and with the Diocesan regulations concerning their application.

In one or two instances, evidence of bad accounting practices and negligence in keeping up to date records has resulted in placing an unnecessary load on their particular Church and making the spiritual work of their clergy more difficult and in placing a greater burden on the Missionary work of the Diocese.

CANON XVI as it relates to insurance on Mission properties has been most ably administered by the Church Foundation, and their recommendations as to the proper amounts of fire insurance, extended coverage and steam boiler insurance have been very helpful in reducing the liability of the Diocese in the event of any unusual happening.

Messrs. Charles S. Rockey and Company have again extended to the Diocese the low cost audit plan, with which so many of our Parishes and Missions are acquainted.

Any questions which you may have or information which you may desire will be promptly answered by the Committee, and the Financial Secretary will be glad to meet with either Vestries or Parish committees at your convenience.

The Committee on Financial Safeguards wishes to express its appreciation to all Wardens and Treasurers for their cooperation and their real effort to observe all of the provisions of the regulations in the Canons of the General Church and of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

EDWARD B. CLAY, Chairman,

Committee on Financial Safeguards

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PROPERTY

During 1950 we have sold "Ravenswood" the former home of the Powers family on School House Lane, Germantown which the Diocese had inherited and after a thorough study of its possible uses decided not to retain.

We arranged for the purchase of land in Quakertown, for a new rectory and arranged with the architect for the construction which is now going on. A survey of the area around Plymouth Meeting was made and a site recommended to the vestry of St. Jude and The Nativity who are planning to build after settlement has been made.

We have cooperated with the architect and the Church Foundation relocating the church for St. Alban's, Newtown Square which is now under construction. We negotiated the purchase of a house on Roberts Road in Bryn Mawr to be the new Mackey-Smith Memorial House and arranged for the appraisal and sale of the former Memorial House on Penn Road, Wynnewood by direction of the Standing Committee.

Plans for various buildings and alterations for parishes were approved by our committee of architects and the Church Furniture Committee has arranged for the disposal of considerable property. Many repairs and changes for missions in all parts of the Diocese have been supervised and concluded with the assistance of the Department of Missions and the various Deans.

At the present time a survey of the area around Morrisville is being made so that we may be ready to cope with the great expansion that is taking place there as a result of the erection of the new plant of the U. S. Steel Company.

Presently we are investigating the possibility of the use of a standard type of building for a church, parish house, or rectory in the interest of economy but no decision has been made as yet. We collaborated in the demolition of the building of the Holy Redeemer Polish and are actively trying to sell the Transfiguration Mission property.

The Church House has been maintained in good repair.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

News in the Diocese during 1950 was marked by an unusual upsurge in construction of Churches, Parish Houses, and Rectories. It has been many years since so much building has been under way within the borders of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Another significant development during the year has been the increased activity on the part of the men of the Church, in parish and diocesan circles.

The increased number of candidates for the Ministry has had its effect upon the Philadelphia Divinity School, which has been in the news continuously.

Many changes have occurred among the ranks of the clergy, affecting both missions and parishes, bringing many new and fine leaders into Pennsylvania, as some of our best men have left for work elsewhere.

Death made serious inroads among the leading clergymen of the Diocese, as it did also among lay men and women in places of active usefulness.

The service for the presentation of the Lenten Offering on the grounds of the Episcopal Academy was televised by station WFIL TV, making it possible for thousands of Church people to witness this colorful service, who probably would have been unable to attend in person.

All of these events and many others have found their way from the office of the Department of Publicity to the secular press and the national Church papers.

Of course, THE CHURCH NEWS has been the chief medium through which the work of our Bishops, Parishes, Missions, and Institutions has been made known to all of the members of the Diocese. One of our discerning readers recently said: "When I read the pages of THE CHURCH NEWS, I am impressed with the greatness of the Diocese of Pennsylvania."

You can help the work of the Department of Publicity by sending us clippings of all Church items appearing in local secular newspapers, mentioning name and date of publication. We keep a scrap book of such clippings which are very valuable to the Diocese.

Many of the items we print come to our attention first through bulletins, parish letters, or parish papers, whether published weekly or monthly. Please be sure that our office receives a copy of every piece of literature and each communication issued in each Parish and Mission. We also need the co-operation in this same way of all Diocesan Departments, Commissions, and Committees. Share with others what you know about the work of the Church.

The major problem of a Diocesan magazine like THE CHURCH NEWS is that of circulation. We have no way of increasing subscriptions without the co-operation of the clergy, vestrymen, and officers of parish organizations. We have learned from experience that where such help is given our subscription problem is met satisfactorily. We are eager to have a copy of our publication in the home of every Church family. We could double our circulation at once if we might have the assistance we need on the parish level throughout the Diocese.

We will gladly explain the advantages and methods of procuring subscriptions in our Missions and Parishes, offering financial returns for such efforts. Please communicate by mail or telephone at the Church House.

R. MARSHALL TRUITT, Chairman,

Department of Publicity

REPORT OF THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

The General Convention Meeting in San Francisco, in the Fall of 1949, laid upon the Church a new responsibility for Missionary work. The Budget of the National Council was increased by $2,000,000. However, this budget included, for the first time, the Presiding Bishop's Fund.

Our delegates returned from the Convention with much enthusiasm for the enlarged Missionary Program—realizing what this program would mean to the Diocese of Pennsylvania—a greater share and a greater responsibility for making Christ known throughout the world and for training parents and children in an enlarged educational program.

When the enlarged program was interpreted in dollars and cents, it laid upon us the responsibility of raising $325,000 for this work—an increase of $100,000 over the year before. That seemed a gigantic and impossible task. Our Bishops and Field Department felt that it could be done so we set ourselves to the task.

A Bishop's Committee of Seventy leading men and women of the Diocese met for two days at Schwenksville on September 29th and 30th, where the whole program was laid out by the National Field Department Chairman, Robert D. Jordan. This Conference was invaluable. Those who attended got an entirely different view of our opportunity and responsibility. We got an insight into what might be accomplished with hard work and consecration.

The Field Department sent out a questionnaire asking the rectors for definite information as to their canvass, especially as to the speaker they desired from the Committee of Seventy. For five weeks the committee made addresses in Churches and Parish Houses, at Services, Meetings and Dinners.

The work of this Committee of Seventy was blessed by a response from the Diocese which was unprecedented.

The challenge of an increased budget totalling $475,000—$150,000 for the Diocese and $325,000 for the National Council was accepted to a large degree. We earnestly believe that the budget for 1952, when it is presented to the Convention in May, will be accepted for the full amount for the National Church and for the Diocese.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has led the Church time after time in doing Missionary work. We believe we have been greatly blessed in our own Diocese by accepting the challenge of making Christ known to the whole world.

CHARLES W. SHREINER,
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The Department of Missions has been reorganized to the extent that it depends upon the Executive Committees of the various Convocations, under the leadership of the Deans, to explore the needs of these several areas, to evaluate missions facing problems in order that they may advise either, or both, the Mission and/or the Department of Missions. In this way matters that are brought before the Department have been carefully investigated by competent people within the geographical and social sphere of the work so that the Department will be given a complete picture for its consideration. Some interesting meetings and fine discussions have resulted. We can improve this method by experience, but we are all learning about the Diocese in this way.

The near hurricane of November 25 caused a great deal of damage to much of our property and brought to our attention the need for extended coverage to be added to the insurance of both Parishes and Missions.

It was discovered that there were several special types of boilers in use that were not covered as required by law and proper action was taken.

In every other case, the Department have functioned as usual in dealing with emergent matters.

A new church building is being constructed for St. Alban's, Newtown Square and will be completed this year.

A new vicarage is currently being constructed in Quakertown on land bought in a splendid location. Enough land was bought in a fine residential area so that if it seems desirable in the future a church could be built on that site. The Reverend Kenneth Rodgers is the Vicar and the work is progressing under his competent and consecrated leadership.

The Urban Church problem, which is national in scope, is a matter of deep concern to our Department and a careful study on a Diocesan level is planned for the Department's consideration.

It would be difficult to express adequately our indebtedness to the Deans and consecrated people of our Convocations for the time, interest, and wisdom they have contributed to the spread of Christ's Kingdom, both men and women. The Property Committee under Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Leech, and the Architects' Committee has been of constant help in our work.

J. Gillespie Armstrong

THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

It is always a matter of discouragement when a mission is going well to have the vicar called to another parish, and in that the Convocation of Chester has been unfortunate this past year. Five clergymen have left us to go to better places, and their missions have had to depend upon lay readers until a new vicar was found. We are glad that the men's ability has been recognized, but sorry to lose their services.

On the other hand there has been a great deal to encourage us.

Saint Christopher's, Gladwyn which is the outgrowth of Saint Joseph's Chapel is a full fledged and flourishing parish already showing signs of outgrowing its new buildings.

The Chapel of the Holy Apostles and the Mediator while not a convocational mission is nearing completion and within a short time will be ready for services. This is at Penn Wynne where it will serve a large and growing neighborhood.

The third place is a case of the dead coming-alive. Saint Andrew's, West Vincent was closed in 1924 when the congregation got down to three communicants. Since then the character of the community has changed with commuters going ever farther away from the city, and last Summer a committee presented the Bishop with a petition asking him to re-open the church. At the first service held in the late Fall there were 166 people in church. The Rev. Crosswell McBee, D.D., is generously giving his services on the first Sunday of each month, and a Divinity School student is acting as lay reader for the present.

Another mission is this year becoming a parish. All Saints' Darby under the able leadership of the Rev. Charles D. Snowden has relinquished all diocesan assistance, and is petitioning the Convention to be admitted as a parish.

The very rapid growth in this part of the Diocese is shown in the number of new buildings or additions to existing buildings among the parishes and missions of the Convocation. Twenty-two places have either just enlarged their existing facilities, or are about to do so. Besides the places already mentioned, the following missions are in the process of building.

Saint Alban's, Newtown Square, is completing a handsome church on a new site where they will have plenty of room for further expansion.

Saint John's, Concord, broke ground on January 30th for a much needed parish house. They are being assisted by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester, but the amount in hand will not enable them to complete it. However, with four walls and a roof they will have an incentive to work hard to get the rest.

Finally, in the near future Saint James, Green Ridge, hopes to build a church. At the present time they are trying to work in a converted dwelling which is inadequate to their needs.

Bishop Hart has made the following appointments within the Convocation: The Rev. H. Albion Ferrell to be Vicar of Ascension Mission, West Chester, and Saint Cyrils, Coatesville; the Rev. William A. Powell to be Vicar of Saint Albans, Newtown Square; and Mr. Huibert De Meester to be lay reader at Saint Andrew's, West Manayunk.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation which has helped in so many ways over the years is now engaged in raising the balance of their pledge to Saint John's, Concord. Their meetings with an attendance sometimes reaching 300 are always a source of inspiration and strength; and this last year have seemed to me to be more interesting than ever before. When a group of devoted and able women consecrate their energies, things happn.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation of Chester met on the third Thursdays of May and October, with an attendance at both meetings of over 300 members of the Auxiliary and Clergy.

The Spring Meeting took place at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Rosemont. At the business meeting, which was held in the Parish House, one interesting feature was a panel given by a group of women from St. Asaph's Church in Bala, on "How can we help our children achieve Christian living?" The speaker in the afternoon was the Rev. John A. Baden from Moncton, Maryland, who brought pictures to illustrate his interesting and delightful talk on Rural Work.

At the Fall Meeting, held in St. John's Church in Cynwyd, after the usual reports Mrs. John Hill outlined the Missionary program of the Church as presented at the recent conference at Schwenksville. $2500.00, raised by the women, was presented, to be used for a Parish House Wing in St. John's' Church in Concord.

THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The first work of the Convocation of Germantown after my election at its May meeting, 1950 as Dean, was the planning of two visits to see the Missions of the Convocation in June and July. Convocation had elected to the Executive Committee The Reverend Messrs: G. A. Trowbridge, S. T. Steele, H. E. Kaufmann, and A. Fischer; and Messrs: Walter Gossling, 20 S. 15th St.; R. M. Truitt, St. Georges' Rd., Phila. 18; Elwood Newton from Frankford and Raymond Baker and The Reverend Albert Holloway both from Trinity, Oxford. As lay delegate the Dean appointed to the Executive Committee Messrs: Loring Dam, St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Raymond Baker, of Trinity Oxford and Mr. Gotwals of Grace Church, Mt. Airy. Our first Executive meeting was held June 7, 1950 at Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg. Those present were the Reverend Messrs: Edmund B. Wood, Albert F. Fischer, Jr., Wm. J. Dietrich, Jr., Henry E. Kaufmann, Wm. O. Roome, and Mrs. Henry J. Gideon and Mr. Newton. At this meeting we visited Andalusia, Academy Gardens, Christ Church, Eddington, St. Paul's, Edgley, Grace Church, Hulmeville, and All Saints, Fallsington.

The outcome of this trip was a decision to recommend an addition of a room to the Rectory at Hulmeville. At Fallsington the recommendation to abandon the use of a fertilizer plant for any church purposes, in view of the complete absence of plumbing, water etc. Decision was made to request the use of Fallsington Rectory and Parish House.

Our second trip in July covered Hulmeville, Fallsington, New Hope and Solebury. We were very much interested in seeing the new Rectory in Solebury which the Convocation helped to build. We were also delighted to see the work going on of extending the Church, which, when completed, will double its seating capacity.

The friends of Trinity Church, Solebury got together this year and successfully raised funds for the Church by producing the Bucks County Cook Book. The income from this venture, which required a second edition, will go far towards paying for the Church's alterations. We are fortunate in having progressive leadership at Solebury in the person of The Reverend Walter Malone. He is also responsible for services at St. Philip's, New Hope.

The Reverend Stanley Powell, Vicar of St. Paul's Edgley, is making excellent progress. We hope Convocation will be able to help him make such improvements in the basement as will make it useable for Sunday School, Etc.

Your Executive Committee has worked hard in surveying new sites for the Convocation. The Reverend Mr. Trowbridge uncovered for us the facts concerning the Temple Stadium area which seems to rule us out as far as starting work is concerned. In this area the increasing Jewish population is the outstanding factor. The Reverend William Dietrich reported a still more Jewish character in the neighborhood he surveyed above Washington Lane and west of Stenton Ave. The Reverend Albert Holloway has been calling for several months in the area known as Valley View, just East of Bethayres. So far he has discovered many Episcopal families who seem well served by Episcopal Churches in Somerton, Rockledge, Trinity, Oxford and some coming quite cheerfully as far as Germantown.

In line with Missionary prospecting, your committee on new sites is studying the possible need for Church work in South Hampton, where we are consulting the Rector of the Church of the Advent, Hatboro, The Reverend L. J. Sachs.

Your Executive Committee has met with Mr. Appleyard of the U. S. Steel Corp. in order to gain an accurate knowledge of their plans to erect a Steel Mill, in Bucks County. A need for War Materials has accelerated the building of this plant as early as possible. Mr. Appleyard indicated the settling of Executives and white collar staff as likely to be in Makefield, which lies between Morrisville and Yardley. The Company does not plan itself to build any housing projects at present. They look for their source of labor to Philadelphia and Trenton. While at first these people may travel far to work, it is probable that they will eventually settle somewhere near the steel plant. Should this be the case our Mission stations seem located on the perimeter of such growth.

Germantown Convocation will hold a special meeting February 5th at St. Mark's, Frankford to do two things: 1—To present Chaplain Pike of Columbia University to address us on how New York planned and prepared for their successful Diocesan Mission held in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. Chaplain Pike was a key man in making this mission a success. Since our Diocesan authorities have arranged for a similar mission in Philadelphia December, 1951, Chaplain Pike's experience will be valuable to us in making our preparations on the Convocation level. Your Executive Committee plans a business meeting for Convocation after Chaplain Pike's address. We want Convocation to discuss the advisability of recommending to the Diocesan authorities appointment by the Bishop of the Diocese one or more specially qualified men to start new work wherever the Bishop sees they are most needed.

The financial report for the Convocation of Germantown for 1950 is most encouraging. Here is a summary of Convocation giving.

|---|---|
| Accepted Proportionate Share | $101,400.00 |
| Paid on Proportionate Share | 107,310.67 |
| Presiding Bishop's Fund | 6,243.61 |
| Episcopal Hospital | 4,261.59 |

We are grateful to the support and backing given by Mrs. Cocker and her officers of the Ladies Aid and the generous financial help of the Aid.

Our sincere thanks to all who worked for the "Garden Day" and to the Rector of Grace Church, Mt. Airy for the use of their grounds on this occasion.

Sincerely yours,

EDMUND B. WOOD, Dean

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

The Convocation still has only five missions under its supervision.

At St. Anne's, Willow Grove, the work progresses steadily. Emphasis is still being laid by the Vicar, the Rev. Harold A. Hopkins, upon the healing mission of the Church as a part of its activity, too much and too often neglected.

At Epiphany, Royersford, during 1950, there had not as yet been appointed any resident clergyman. The services on each Sunday Morning were conducted by the long-time faithful layman of the parish, Mr. Edward C. Kaltenbach—except on the first Sunday of each month, when the Rev. Dr. Franklin J. Clark, a retired clergyman living in Whitemarsh, went to Royersford for a celebration of the Holy Communion at the 10.30 service.

Due to cracks appearing in the belfry and in the walls on either side of the main entrance of the church, repairs were required at a cost of nearly $400.00, which was paid for by the Diocese.

The wind and rain storm of November blew the chimney from the Rectory, tearing a hole in the roof, five feet in diameter, and ruining the paper and paint in many rooms on the first as well as the second floor of the house. The cost for repairs will probably reach $1,500 and will come from Diocesan funds.

At Trinity, Gulph Mills, the congregation continued, till the autumn, under the care of Mr. Frederick B. Stimson, a loyal layman who, for the last two years, as a volunteer, has conducted the Sunday services here. While Mr. Stimson has been in Maine during the summer months, Mr. George W. Morris, a layman of St. Thomas', Whitemarsh, substituted for him.

In October, a second year Divinity Student, Mr. George C. Ruof, was sent by the Bishop to Gulph Mills to take charge of the mission and to be with the people for Sundays and for one afternoon and evening each week. On the second Sunday of each month, the Rev. Dr. Clark has celebrated the Holy Communion at the 11 o'clock service.

For several years, rain water has been seeping through the foundation of the mission and ruining the floor of the basement which is used for the Sunday School and other parish activities. The repairs, costing approximately $1,000, will be paid by Diocesan funds.

At St. Philip-in-the-Fields, Oreland, the new Rectory, begun in the fall of 1949, was completed at a cost of approximately $22,000. The Vicar, the Rev. Joseph Tatnall, moved into the house with Mrs. Tatnall and their little daughter during the month of June.

Toward the cost of the Rectory, Bishop Hart allocated $6,000 from the Bell Fund; about $7,000 was given by St. Thomas', Whitemarsh; the Convocation of Norristown contributed approximately $3,000; the people of the Mission itself are making up the balance.

Oreland has continued to grow by leaps and bounds; St. Philip's is filled to overflowing at the service each Sunday morning, and it is becoming increasingly difficult to take care of all the children who come to the Church School.

Emmanuel, Quakertown, has received the largest amount of attention from the Diocese and the Convocation; the time seemed ripe for definite forward work to be done there.

Early in 1950, three lots were purchased on the edge of Quakertown, where a building operation was under way. The cost, $4,000, was met by Diocesan money.

By summer plans for a Rectory had been drawn and approved; by fall a contract was signed with a local builder for approximately $22,000. Of this amount, $20,000 was charged against surplus balances in Diocesan missionary funds.

The Mission itself, busy with paying for extensive repairs and improvements in the Church and Parish House, has assumed no obligation for the cost of the Rectory. Emmanual, Quakertown, has never had a Rectory in all its fifty years of life.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation of Norristown has planned, before June, 1951, to raise about $1,000 which will be used for "permanent fixtures" in the Rectory, especially those in the kitchen.

In May, 1950, the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation began to meet separately from the men—not just in another place but on another date. The first session was held at St. Thomas', Whitemarsh, when Dr. Shreiner, till very recently the Dean of the Chester Convocation, inspired our Auxiliary with a new vision of what they might do in their Convocation. The second meeting was held at All Hallows, Wyncote, where plans were worked out to pay for the "permanent fixtures" in the Quakertown Rectory.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

For the first time the members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation met by themselves apart from the clergy and lay delegates—on May 18, 1950, at St. Thomas', Whitemarsh. The meeting was well attended by representatives from almost all parishes and missions; Bishop Armstrong was present and the Rev. Dr. Shreiner, formerly Dean of the Chester Convocation, told of the activities of the women in his Convocation.

The Fall meeting of the women was held on October 19 at All Hallows, Wyncote, when the Dean showed colored slides of our five Missions, taken on various Sunday mornings. The Rev. Mr. Tatnall of Oreland told of the new Vicarage at St. Philip-in-the-Fields which had been completed only a few months before; the Rev. Mr. Rodgers of Emmanuel, Quakertown, told of plans for the new Vicarage there.

The delegates caught the enthusiasm of these two Vicars and pledged themselves to raise $1,000, before the next meeting in May 1951, to be used for "the permanent fixtures" in the proposed Quakertown Vicarage—especially those in the kitchen.

A few weeks after this Fall Meeting, nearly every parish and mission in the Convocation sent two delegates to a luncheon at the Quakertown Mission, when the women had the chance to inspect the Church, the Parish House, and the location for the new Vicarage.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The May meeting of the Convocation for the year 1950 was held at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kensington, and the October meeting at St. Ambrose, Howard and Ontario Streets.

We commend to clergy and parishioners alike due preparation for the Bryan Green Mission which is to be held in Convention Hall next fall. We urge them to be ready to cooperate to the fullest in all the plans of the Diocesan Committee.

To our Convocation we welcome several new clergy. One is the new rector of historic old Christ Church, the Rev. Ernest A. de Bordenave, who preached for us at our October meeting.

At St. Paul's, Aramingo, the Rev. Francis Blake succeeded the Rev. Louis E. Fifer III. The latter has become rector of All Hallows, Wyncote. We shall all miss him, but wish him great success in his new parish.

The Rev. G. Crofton Thompson has become minister-in-charge of St. George's, Richmond, where Mr. Philip Holland, as lay reader, has done a splendid job at holding the parish together and preparing for the coming of the new vicar.

A lay reader and Divinity student, Mr. David E. Hilsee, is in charge of the work at St. Barnabas, the priestly function and communion service on the first Sunday of each month being conducted by the Rev. Gustav C. Meckling.

It is with deep regret that we report that the Rev. Otto Berg felt it necessary to give up his ministry to the deaf at All Souls Church. At present, the Dean is assisting the lay readers in charge of All Souls by administering the Communion services.

We appreciate the leadership and services of Dr. Percy R. Stockman at St. Paul's Mission, North Penn, where he is assisted by the newly ordained deacon, Rev. Monroe C. Devan.

At Holy Redeemer (Polish) Mission on Richmond Street, the building, after being condemned, has been torn down. This has seriously handicapped the work, and the church organization has been taken temporarily to the Church of St. Mary of the Annunciation. A committee has been studying the whole situation and all are awaiting the final decision of the Diocesan authorities.

Two parishes celebrated anniversaries in fitting manner during the past year. The Church of the Resurrection has been at Broad and Tioga Streets for 100 years, and St. Matthews commemorated 125 years of active life.

We are happy to report that all but two of the thirty parishes and missions in this convocation have paid or overpaid their missionary apportionment. We thank the faithful and loyal clergy and their people for the efforts and sacrifices made by them to attain such a splendid missionary goal.

While you read everywhere of discontent and clamorous demands for more and continual "cost of living raises" by so many organized pressure groups, do you ever hear of such demands or strikes or threatened walkouts among the clergy? In a period of so much unrest they are carrying on quietly everywhere on an even keel, setting an example as Ambassadors from God and not mendicants.

Again we desire to thank the officers and members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Convocation, as well as the Men's Executive Committee, for their loyalty and cooperation in planning and carrying on the work of our Convocation.

This is a Convocation of changing populations and old parishes, with no new housing developments to furnish a sudden influx of new people. Instead we must have a strong hold-the-line policy, which may ultimately involve a combination of parishes to give us fewer but stronger ones.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Church is affected by the changes that are continually taking place in our section of the city. It is a serious and perplexing problem and it is difficult to know how we can best cope with it. The Churches and Missions, for the most part, are doing their utmost to minister to the people living within our boundaries. We feel that a better work could be accomplished, if we had the means and manpower to reach the large number of unchurched in our part of the city.

The National Church, through its conferences on urban work, is trying to bring about an understanding of the problems of the city church.

St. Phillip's Mission, under the supervision of the Vicar, the Rev. J. Da Costa Harewood, D.D., is progressing. This faithful congregation is doing a splendid work. During the year 1950 it did not need Diocesan aid.

The Rev. Francis B. Roseboro, Vicar of St. Elizabeth's, continues his ministry among the people of his community, with the assistance of Miss Eleanor A. Deane, an able parish worker.

We were very sorry to have the Rev. Frank Salmon, D.D., resign as Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

The Convocation sponsored a Teaching Mission which was held at Holy Trinity Church from December 3rd through December 10th. The Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong, D.D., and the Rev. Thorne Sparkman, D.D., conducted the mission and we are grateful to them for their inspirational messages.

The May meeting of Convocation was held at the Chapel of Holy Communion and the October meeting was held at St. Peter's.

We thank the Woman's Aid to the Convocation and the Executive Committee for their co-operation in planning and assisting in the work of the Convocation.

WOMAN'S AID

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION

The January meeting was held at St. Mark's, our speaker in the morning was the Rev. Paul Washington of Liberia. At the Dean's request we gave $100.00 to the Church of the Crucifixion. In the afternoon we had a most spiritual experience with a beautiful meditation given by Bishop Armstrong.

The May meeting was held at The Memorial Church of the Holy Communion. There being no requests for Summer Vacational Bible Schools we granted no funds but hope they will be held next year. We gave $50.00 to the Episcopal Hospital Lawn Fete. We were credited with $144.45 for the Educational Day for the Blind. Mr. Donald Gardner, a student of the Divinity School, gave us a very interesting talk of his work in the Summers.

The October meeting was at St. Peter's when we gave $5.00 to the Mission being held at Holy Trinity and $100.00 to the Divinity School Scholarship Fund, also $15.00 each to St. Phillips, St. Elisabeth and Crucifixion for their Christmas Parties for their children. The Rev. Allen F. Kremer and the Rev. John R. Logan gave us a most inspiring and instructive talk on the urban church especially in connection with South Philadelphia.

In view of the above we feel we have had a very successful year and are looking forward to the future.

Respectfully submitted

THE CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The Missions in the Convocation of West Philadelphia have shown considerable growth and development during the year 1950, denoting fine leadership and guidance on the part of those in charge, for the strength of a mission depends largely upon its leader. To these men I would express my deep appreciation for their loyal cooperation.

St. Cyprian's Mission, the Rev. Raymond S. Mitchell, Vicar, is growing steadily both in numbers and spiritually. Twenty-eight persons were confirmed and twenty-three baptized during the year. There has also been a great deal of new equipment added: an R.C.A. Victor Recording machine, electric lawn mower, electric hedge cutter, Speed-O-Print Machine, a typewriter and new side lights in the basement of the Church. For the first time in many years the Mission has been able to pay its Missionary Quota, pay all bills and realize a reasonable balance. Each month a little journal, known as the Cyprianette, finds its way into the homes of the communicants and keeps them abreast of the Church News. Every organization, especially the Men's Fellowship and the Choir, may be proud of doing a fine job.

St. Titus' Mission, under the leadership of Mr. Harry Johnson, has completed the year in a financially sound condition. The Missionary Quota has been met, and the exterior of the Church has been painted. Six children were presented for confirmation. The boys in the Church School were formed into a baseball team during the summer and in the winter months they have had two teams in a basketball league. During the year two organizations were combined to form a Woman's Auxiliary.

At St. Monica's, the Rev. Matthew W. Davis, Vicar, the year was one of activity and progress. The organizations worked very hard and accomplished a great deal. The Men's Fellowship finished paying for the oil burner which had been installed; the Rector's Aid Guild sponsored a bus trip to Jones Beach, Long Island, last July and cleared enough money to pay the taxes, water and sewer rent on the Vicarage, and furnished the paint for the front of the Vicarage; the Woman's Auxiliary sponsored a lawn fete in June and a bazaar in December, and the sale of Christmas cards; the Altar Guild had all the brass vessels in the Church refinished; the Choir sponsored a sacred concert and gave the money toward the Organ Fund. A used Minshell-Estey organ was purchased through a loan of $750.00 and to date $500.00 has been repaid.

The Church School was reorganized and the new hour of meeting—9:30 A.M., each Sunday—seems to be much better. New study material was used and it has proved to be of much more interest.

I am most grateful to the officers and members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation, under the able leadership of Mrs. William J. Sargeant, for the splendid work that this organization has accomplished, and the help that I have received.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

REPORT OF THE

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The over-all emphasis of the department has been and will continue to be—"One Church—One educational program"—and that a "total parish educational program." The immediate emphasis continues to be the need for adult education, i.e., parents, teachers and "every adult." The National Council's publications are presented and its program and plans interpreted upon every possible occasion. A limited number of all publications are available in Room 30.

One of the most successful innovations this past year was the Church School Curriculum Planning Days. Five days in June were set aside for this work and notices sent to the clergy. This idea was so well received that it soon became apparent that it would take many more than the five days set aside. We also realized that for the next few years we must make curriculum planning our main emphasis for June.

The Executive Secretary, Miss Beryl M. Newman, served on a provincial committee to prepare and publish a new "Evaluation Chart of Church School Material." The work of preparing a new chart was undertaken at the request of Dr. Heuss of the National Department of Christian Education and from those all over the country who found the first chart (published in 1945) invaluable in their planning of Church School curriculum.

Among other activities the Executive Secretary also served on committees connected with the Division of Domestic Missions of the National Council, the Philadelphia Council of Churches, the Theological Seminary of Temple University, and, of course, continued to participate in various ways in the life of the Philadelphia Divinity School and the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Executive Secretary visited approximately 30 parishes this year, primarily to survey their Church Schools and act in an advisory capacity regarding curriculum, organization and set-up.

She assisted in preparing the curriculum for approximately 35 Church Schools. Also, an increasingly large number of parishes have sought counsel regarding their Youth Work. It is most gratifying that more and more parishes are regularly utilizing the facilities of the department.

Frequently occasions arise or projects are planned that do not fall within the responsibilities of any one committee but rather cut across the concerns of several. Usually when this happens a special committee is appointed to handle this one particular task. Special committees handled the following assignments:

1. Promotion—through educational means—of the "One World in Christ" Campaign. The Field Department asked this department to undertake this responsibility.

2. Bishop Hart's Clergy Conference on Christian Education held at Valley Forge Military Academy, June 20th to 22nd. The conference this year was planned to try to give the clergy a glimpse of that "vision of the Church and its educational task" caught by those men who had attended some of the sessions at the College of Preachers. Some of the new techniques advocated for Adult education were successfully used.

3. Early in the fall Bishop Hart accepted the Rev. John Heuss' invitation to conduct a conference on Christian Education for all the clergy in this diocese. Dr. Heuss, who is the Director of our National Department of Christian Education, will bring with him the entire College of Preachers staff and the conference will be from April 9th to 13th, 1951. Bishop Hart has asked the Department of Christian Education to be responsible for carrying out the detailed planning and has appointed a committee for that purpose with the chairman of the department as chairman.

4. At the request of Bishop Hart several members of the department served on a committee to survey possibilities of a conference center for the diocese.

The Church School Committee

Miss Elizabeth A. Jenks, Chairman

The 80th Annual Church School Institute was held on October 2nd at the Christian Association. The theme was "A Growing Faith." Under the general theme were two primary emphases: (1) For our Children—A Growing Faith—that they may be, at each stage of their growth, what God intended them to be. (2) That we, parents and Church School teachers, may have A Growing Faith to share with our children. Dr. Jessie Dell Crawford, former head of the Department of Religious Education at Princeton University, was the speaker at dinner. She spoke of the times of crises and questions in a child's life which need answers from people with real convictions. The group conferences carried the theme to teachers and parents, stressing the need for a vital faith on the part of all parents and Church School teachers of all age levels in order to meet the needs of children.

In cooperation with the Special Offerings Committee the members of the Church School Committee prepared a Lenten Guide on "Rural America" the 1951 Mission Study Theme. This is prepared to help clergy, superintendents and teachers make the study a living experience for the boys and girls in our Church Schools.

Members of this committee served on a special committee to pre-vue the new Leadership Education Audio-Visual Kit and to make plans for its use.

The Committee on Special Offerings

The Rev. Aaron Manderbach, Chairman until December

The Lenten Offering which totalled $67,229.43 representing 174 parishes out of 186 was again presented at a great outdoor service. WFIL-TV telecast this service and the result was such that the WFIL station, as well as the hundreds of Episcopalians who received it through this medium, were very pleased. Bishop Armstrong was the preacher.

The Lenten Guide for Church School Leaders was again prepared jointly by the Church School Committee and this committee.

The Advent Offering for 1950 was $1,238.84 and was designated for the work of the Diocesan Worker at Holy Redeemer Mission (Polish), Richmond.

The Birthday Thank Offering 1949-50 was to assist interior schools in Grand Cape Mount County, Liberia, and 8 parishes gave $140.08.

Our Church Schools, under the leadership of Mrs. Lorin Blodget, Christmas Box Secretary, sent over a thousand gifts to Robertsport, Liberia; the Mountain Missions of Southwest Virginia and Missions in Wyoming. Thousands of gifts were also sent to missions and institutions in our own diocese.

The Vacation Church School Committee

Miss Eleanor A. Deane, Chairman

"Summer is the Parish Church" was the keynote of the efforts of the Vacation Church School Committee this year. While stressing the fact that the Vacation Church School is the best medium for Christian Education in the Church they sent out a two page leaflet suggesting many ideas that would enrich parish family life during the summer months.

The Weekday Religious Education Committee

Dr. Henry J. Gideon, Chairman

The committee has not been especially active since the completion and distribution of the second and final report on weekday religious education on released time. However, the chairman of the committee and Miss Beryl M. Newman, Executive Secretary, have served as members of the Committee on Religion and Public Education of the Philadelphia Council of Churches. This Interdenominational Committee under the direction of Dr. George T. Peters has been alert and active in the whole field of church and school relations in this area. During the year 1950 it issued a pamphlet entitled "A Statement on Religion and Public Education" which was based in part on a report of the Committee on Religion and Public Education approved by the International Council of Religious Education, February 12th, 1949. This pamphlet should be of value to everyone interested in the subject and may be obtained from the Philadelphia Council of Churches.

While the opinion of the United States Supreme Court in the case of McCollum vs. the Board of Education of Champaign, Ill. (March, 1948) caused a lull and perhaps some set-back in the development of weekday religious education on released time, the present trend seems to be a continued growth in this field of work. Locally, however, there seems to be little change; the classes in Jenkintown and other nearby communities are continuing as usual; those in Upper Darby have been discontinued but are to be re-established next year.

In recent years there has been raised by certain groups objections to the long-established observance of the Christmas season in the Philadelphia public schools by the singing of Christmas carols and the use of pageants. The public school authorities have ruled that the Christmas program in each school is to be determined by the principal and teachers of the individual schools with the understanding that pressure shall not be used on children to participate if their parents object for religious or other reasons. The Philadelphia Council of Churches is actively interested in the continuance of the Christmas observance in public schools, holding that this is so much a part of our American tradition and culture, that it has become a common experience in all areas of civic and community life and should therefore be a part of the school experience.

For both Christian and non-Christian Christmas emphasizes these great concepts: peace, joy, generosity, brotherhood and love for others. As such it ought not be denied a place in the public school program.

The committee feels its main responsibility at the present time is to cooperate with the Philadelphia Council of Churches in this area of work and keep the Episcopal Church properly informed.

The Church School-by-Mail Committee

The Rev. John C. Knewstub, Chairman

In the usual canvas for children unable to attend Sunday School 75 children were located in out-of-the-way places in Chester and Bucks Counties, making a total of 360 children on roll during the year. Forty-eight children during the year became affiliated with the nearest Sunday School, others moved or outgrew the work, leaving a total of 259 at the end of the year. Of these 210 are in the Chester Convocation, 43 in Germantown Convocation, and 6 in Norristown Convocation.

One hundred and fifty-eight visits were made with the aid of thirteen volunteer drivers. Lessons were mailed to each child for every Sunday and 80 per cent responded, 42 per cent regularly and 38 per cent irregularly, with written work which was corrected and returned to them with letters. The other families responded with letters, or when visited showed that they were using and being helped by the lessons. There was one Confirmation at St. John's, Concord.

Two hundred and seven scholarships were received from parishes and missions for the support of the work and a Lenten Offering of $39.20 was given by the Church School-by-Mail families.

The parishes of Holy Trinity, West Chester; St. James, Downingtown; Trinity, Coatesville and St. John's, Concord, supplied a worker for part of the year to send and correct the lessons to Church School-by-Mail children in their outlying districts.

The Commission on Youth

The Rev. John Vander Horst, Chairman until May, 1950

The Rev. Frederic R. Murray, present chairman

Both the Youth Commission and the Youth Council of the diocese have continued to meet monthly throughout 1950.

The first of their joint projects was a series of district meetings throughout the Diocese under the general topic of "Youth Can Help to Build One World in Christ." The burden of presentation at these meetings was shared by the Rev. Charles H. Long, Jr. and Mr. Richard Corsa, both missionaries lately returned from China. Somewhat obviously the emphasis of the meetings was on youth's share in the "One World in Christ" program.

During the spring members of the Council did their bit at the May Fete of the Episcopal Hospital and ushered at the Presentation Service as they have in years past. The Youth Convention of the diocese was held on May 11th at the Episcopal Academy. The speakers was the Very Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Dean of the Cathedral Church of St. John, Wilmington, Delaware. His topic was "Jesus Christ Our Lord, He in Us and We in Him." At the business meeting the following officers were elected: Harold A. Hopkins, Jr., of St. Anne's Church, Willow Grove, Chairman; Annabelle Harris of the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, Vice Chairman and Susan Milan of the Good Shepherd, Kensington, Secretary.

In September the Youth Council held an all-day Planning session at Lorimer Park, Montgomery County, to lay plans for the winter season. At that session a new type of calendar-program was drawn up and subsequently published. It differed from previous calendars in that its emphasis was on program centered around the four majors of the National Youth Commission with events marshalled in the phases of program. It was agreed that the emphasis of the Council for the winter should be on one of these majors—"The Rule of Life" (My Bounden Duty). Pursuant to that emphasis the Rev. Philemon F. Sturges of St. Martin-in-the-Field's, a member of the Commission, presented the Rule to the members of the Council at its November meeting. On December 9th, the Rev. William H. Jefferys, Jr. of St. Luke's, Kensington, conducted a Quiet Day at St. Clement's, Philadelphia, which was most helpful in deepening the sense of need for the Rule. At its December meeting the Council laid plans for a presentation of the Rule to the Summer Conference Reunion on January 11th and to the several Convocational districts in the mid-winter Rallies on January 28th.

The Annual Advent Worship Service was held on December 3rd at 4:30 P.M. in Christ Church, Philadelphia. The preacher was Dean Mosley who had made such a fine impression in the spring that members of the Council wanted him back.

At its November meeting the Commission appointed a special committee to consider the need for reorganization of the structure of the Youth Council. The committee reported back to the December meeting that whereas the present organization was not functioning perfectly, there was not need for reorganization at this time.

The Commission reports that it has not been able to find a full-time youth worker provided for in the 1950 Budget. It has been most anxious to get a capable person experienced in the field of youth work. This has not been easy to do. We hope to find our man early in 1951.

The Summer Conference Committee

The Rev. John Vander Horst, Chairman

The Annual Summer Conference for Young People was held at Haverford College, June 25 to July 1st, with 107 in attendance from 45 parishes and a faculty staff which included our three Bishops.

It was a splendid conference, not only because of the excellence of the teaching, but also for the spirit of the conferees. An experimental change in the set-up of the program proved to be very successful. Each morning one doctrine of the Church was presented to the entire group, after which small groups, under leaders, discussed prepared questions relating that doctrine to the experience of the teen-agers. Drama, music and art classes were electives in the third period.

The conference reached its peak the last evening, closing with a meditation and a rule of silence until after the Celebration of the Holy Communion the last morning.

The Guild of the Little Children Committee

Mrs. H. Burland Patterson, Acting Chairman until October, 1950, when Dr. Lisa Tatnall accepted chairmanship

The committee supplied the needs of the interested parishes this past year through the office of the department. The Guild of the Little Children exhibit at the Church School Institute in October was attractive and instructive and supplied information and answered queries for many interested visitors.

At the December meeting it was decided that a revised and less expensive program would be more useful and practical for a greater number of parishes. This revision is now underway.

The Adult Committee

The Rev. J. Wesley Twelves, Chairman

The main endeavor of this committee during the year has been to inform the clergy and parishes about the new educational material being put out by the National Department, and so far as possible to stimulate its use. Much of the material so far published has been in the field of Adult Education especially suitable for parish study groups.

In order to help the clergy and others in the parishes who carry educational responsibilities to better understand the thinking and planning of the National Department this committee prepared a chart. The Chart under the title "The Parent-Parish Program of Christian Education" shows that the Church has only one educational program and how all ages and groups fit into it. It also shows the materials which have been published and some of those now being produced. This Chart has had wide circulation, even outside our own diocese.

We have encouraged the use of the Family Study Unit entitled "Consider the Bible." Many parishes in the diocese conducted study groups during Lent using this material.

The Adult Committee sponsored and planned a session for the Clergy Conference in June using the technique recommended for Adult Discussion Groups to explain the new educational material. They also had an exhibit of all the new materials.

The committee planned to include in the mailing of the Church School Leaders Guide a supplement which would give to the clergy and leaders of parish adult groups suggestions and recommendations for their Lenten study programs.

Copies of all kinds of tracts issued by the various societies of the Church are kept on display at the Church House for reference. The use of tracts is a well tested form of adult education.

The Audio-Visual Committee

The Rev. Harold A. Hopkins, Chairman

During this year the committee, at the request of Bishop Armstrong, considered the advisability of purchasing a 16 mm. projector and films so they would be available at a very low rate to missions. The committee found that this was not possible or advisable at the present time. However, they did decide to purchase as soon as possible all new missionary films produced by our National Council and have to date: "St. Margaret's School, Tokyo," "Harvest in Liberia" and "Window On the Sky." The committee is at present working out suggestions of Audio-Visuals to be used with the most generally used Church School Courses of study. The library continues to grow and with the addition of the new International Council of Religious Education Audio-Visual Leadership Training Kit can provide a minimum of help in most every area of study.

The School of Christian Education Committee

The Rev. Herbert W. Jones, Chairman

This committee is convinced that the best level for effective work in Christian Education is the parish level and our thinking and planning is toward that goal. However, we know that leaders must be trained and stimulus given and this, of necessity, must be on a broader level; preferably in several sections of the diocese instead of one central school. Our work is with adults; adults who are interested in many phases of life in the parishes and we believe that if we present a school with a good faculty every parish in the community in which the school is held will respond with people who will take the knowledge and training they acquire back to their work in their own home parish.

With this idea in mind the committee planned three sectional schools this fall and winter. The first was held at St. George's Church, Ardmore, October 17th, 24th and 31st. There were 45 in attendance. The second was held at Trinity Church, Oxford, November 8th, 15th and 22nd, with 61 in attendance. The third school will be held in the Church House, January 16th, 23rd and 30th, 1951. Only two courses were planned, one on "The Holy Scriptures" and the other on "Chapters in Church History." The Rev. Doctors Vincent F. Pottle and Joseph H. Hall of the Philadelphia Divinity School were the instructors. Before the second school was over it was very evident that district schools would meet the needs of a larger number of people and that the school would have to be expanded to meet expressed needs. The rectors and members of the most parishes were interested and very cooperative in this undertaking and did much to contribute to its success.

The Reference Committee

Miss Maude Cutler, Chairman

This committee functions only when a specific job is referred to them. At the joint request of the Church School and Special Offerings Committees they made a study this year of special offerings in which our Church Schools are asked to participate, i.e., Lenten Offering, Birthday Thank Offering, Advent and Christmas offerings, etc. The study and evaluation was made in terms of education and stewardship. Their report was made to the department at the October meeting and copy of same is appended to the minutes of that meeting. It is the hope of the department that the recommendations of this committee will be carried out that a brochure covering all the offerings and information regarding same can be printed and made available in September of each year so that Church Schools can intelligently plan for participation in these offerings.

In closing this report may we add that approximately 75 parishes in the diocese are now represented by one or more members on the department and its 13 committees. To all these volunteer workers, both clergy and lay, our deepest and sincerest appreciation for the unselfish and devout giving of their talents and time toward the advancement of Christian education in our diocese.

Respectfully submitted

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

REPORT OF THE ### ANNUAL REPORT OF THE

for the year 1950

The Department of Christian Social Relations conducted an Institute on January 19, 1950 at the Memorial Church of the Advocate on "The Parish and Social Responsibility." At the afternoon session The Parish and Community Welfare and Family Life were considered. Following dinner the General Convention Church World Service and with Displaced Persons. Delegates view of Social Welfare was presented and subsequently the Social Responsibility of the Parish to the World as seen in the work of represented a cross section of the parishes of the Diocese. As a follow up several newsletters containing items of interest were mailed to the clergy and delegates. In the spring a Communion Service and breakfast were held for Episcopal social workers with Mr. A. David Bouterse, executive director of the Pennsylvania Citizens Association and member of the Department as speaker.

An institute discussing "Where to Turn" among the Church, Inter-Church and Non-Church agencies in dealing with social problems is planned for January 18, 1951.

The Department has continued its activity on behalf of displaced Persons coming to this country, not only in securing the necessary sponsors but also in meeting them upon arrival, finding employment and in addition attempting to assist in many matters required in adjustment to the new environment. In this work as in many other activities of the Department, the active cooperation of the Woman's Auxiliary was of greatest assistance. One parish in the Diocese, of which the chairman is rector, has provided facilities for a congregation of the Ukranian Orthodox Church, most of whose people are Displaced Persons.

Three members of the Department were appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese to be delegates to the Central Committee. This committee, composed of delegates from the five dioceses in Pennsylvania, keeps in touch with current legislation in the State Legislature, and makes recommendations to the dioceses.

During the year the Department was saddened by the death of the Rev. James M. Collins, D.D. for many years a member of this Department.

Late in the year of 1950 the Rev. J. Arnold Purdie of New York, executive director of the Division of Health and Welfare Services of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the National Council was elected by the Board of Council of the Philadelphia City Mission to be executive secretary of that agency. Following the recommendations of the Administrative Needs Committee, the Executive Council of the Diocese made the necessary budget change so that Mr. Purdie would also become executive secretary of this Department.

Due to the increasing number of communicants of the Diocese that are entering the armed services, Bishop Hart requested this Department to prepare a plan by which the various parishes would maintain contact with their military personnel and also provide that the Episcopal War Cross and a service book be given to each person before leaving his own parish. The plan follows closely that of the National Council. In addition contact was made with the Philadelphia Naval Hospital and the Valley Forge Military Hospital and the names of nearby clergy were submitted in the event that an Episcopal clergyman was needed.

During the past several years the Department has adopted a policy whereby it considered its primary purpose to be the education of parish representatives rather than to speak for the Diocese in matters of public interest. It is the feeling of the Department, however, that these two matters should receive equal emphasis, and that the Church must uphold Christian ethical principles in all fields of human relations.

Note—Canon XIV, Section III, Paragraph 2, requires that the Ministers in charge of Parishes and Missions shall transfer to the Diocesan Register, at least once a year, and before the annual meeting of the Diocesan Convention, the names of communicants whose continued existence or whereabouts are unknown. It is therefore urged that the Diocesan Register be generally made use of throughout the Diocese, so that there may be uniformity in the listing of so-called "inactives," and in the compilation of parochial statistics.

The Endowment Fund of the Episcopate now has a total book value of $266,432.63.

Funds

The Church Foundation is acting as Trustee in 129 separate funds, as agent for the Bishop in 2 funds and as agent for the Executive Council in 2 funds, making a total of 133 funds.

Of these funds, 117 are invested funds, 15 are real estate funds involving building projects or rentals of property and in one fund we receive the income only.

The total book value of the 117 invested funds is $2,859,016.22, and the following tabulation shows the dollar groups into which these funds fall:

| Group | Number | Total |
|---|---|---|
| Less than $1,000 | 10 | $ 4,775.90 |
| $ 1,000 to $ 3,000 | 23 | 37,162.60 |
| $ 3,000 to $ 5,000 | 12 | 46,068.25 |
| $ 5,000 to $ 10,000 | 27 | 189,933.62 |

| $50,000 to $100,000 | 6 | 425,425.40 |
| Over $100,000 | 8 | 1,497,858.25 |
| | 117 | $2,859,016.22 |

This indicates that 61% of our funds are for $10,000 or under, showing The Church Foundation is rendering a real service to small funds at a minimum cost. The present administration charge is 6% of income if the fund is invested entirely in units of our Consolidated Investments Fund, applicable to all funds regardless of size.

Real Estate

The following building contracts have been signed by The Church Foundation since our last report. As a matter of policy the cost of building projects is deposited with The Church Foundation before the contract is entered into, and payments are made as the work progresses from the Building Fund so provided.

| Name | Amount |
|---|---|
| Church of St. Alban, Newtown Square | $41,199.00 |
| Additions to Rectory of Grace Church, Hulmeville | 2,381.00 |
| Rectory for Emmanuel, Quakertown | 23,000.00 |
| Ground for St. Jude and the Nativity Parish | 3,600.00 |

In addition, at the request of the Bishop, we have received title to the following properties from the Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Advancement of Christianity in Pennsylvania:

Trinity Mission, Solebury
Grace Church, Hulmeville
St. George, West Philadelphia
St. Stephen, Clifton Heights

Purchase was made of the property at 128 Roberts Road, Bryn Mawr as a residence for Bishop Suffragan J. Gillespie Armstrong, with funds in the Episcopal Residences Fund, to be known as the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House.

Sale was made of the Rectory of St. Gabriel's Church, Philadelphia, 137 E. Wyoming Avenue, and the proceeds of the sale was turned over to the parish authorities with the understanding that it be used either for the purchase or the erection of a new rectory.

Sale was made of the Ravenswood property at West School House and Gypsy Lanes, Germantown, being occupied by the Sheltering Arms until no longer needed for this purpose. Part of the proceeds have been designated by the Bishop for building purposes at the House of Rest.

Insurance

The Church Foundation holds title to all the mission properties of the Diocese. It is the duty of the Committee on Insurance to see that those properties are kept adequately insured against loss by fire, and to this end regular appraisals are received through the Church Fire Insurance Corporation. For several years our Committee on Insurance has advocated adding extended coverage protection to fire insurance. As a result of the severe windstorm of November 25, 1950, considerable damage was done to Mission properties, necessitating a good deal of expense on the part of the Diocese on several properties not so insured. Subsequently, on February 9, 1951 the Executive Council instructed The Church Foundation to place extended coverage on all mission properties not already carrying same, as well as on the Church House. This insurance is now in force.

Our Committee on Insurance was instrumental in having a survey conducted on all mission properties to determine the existence of pressure vessels which required state inspection according to law. It was found that there were 24 objects in 16 missions which fell into this category. As a result of this report the Executive Council, at their meeting of December 8, 1950, instructed the Church Foundation to place Steam Boiler Insurance on all objects requiring state inspection. This was done by means of a schedule policy.

The cost of all insurance carried is borne by the individual missions.

Consolidated Investments Fund

As generally understood, this is a common trust fund in which most of our funds participate by the investment of cash or securities in exchange for units. It has the distinct advantages of better diversification and higher yields than could be obtained by the separate investment of smaller funds. There are 105 participating funds. Only building funds and a few restricted funds are excluded.

The investments of the Consolidated Fund are under the constant supervision of the Committee on Investments and a sub-committee of same may take necessary action between meetings of the full committee.

The results of the Consolidated Fund have been most gratifying. The gross earnings reached a high point of 51 cents a unit in 1950, and an average market value of $11.40 per unit during the year.

After deducting bond amortizating of one cent per unit and administration expense of 6% of income, equivalent to three cents per unit, there remained for distribution 47 cents per unit in the year 1950. This resulted in a net yield of 4.1%.

The tabulations of earnings and values of units in the Consolidated Investments Fund for the fiscal years ended December 31st for the past three years have been as follows:

| | 1950 | 1949 | 1948 |
|---|---|---|---|
| Number of Participating units ... | 222,572 | 206,409 | 193,011 |
| Gross earnings per unit ..... | $0.514 | $0.471 | $0.447 |
| Administration Expense 6% ..... | .030 | .028 | .026 |
| Amortization of bond premiums ... | .010 | .017 | — |
| Net earnings per unit ..... | $0.474 | $0.426 | $0.421 |
| Average unit value ..... | $11.40 | $10.39 | $10.44 |
| Average net yield ..... | 4.1% | 4.1% | 4.0% |

The latest unit value as of the appraisal March 5, 1951 was $12.21, the highest on record.

The Chart incorporated in this report shows the quarterly unit values, earnings per unit and participating units from the incorporation of the Consolidated Investments Fund in April 1943. The fund started with 66,998 units valued at $10 each, or a book value $669,980. The number of participating units have been growing steadily year by year, so that now with 222,572 participating units, the Fund has grown to over three times its original size.

The total market value of securities and cash in the Fund as of the appraisal March 5, 1951 was $2,695,637.63 as against a book value of $2,377,486.74.

The chart and the list of the investments and summary of the Consolidated Investments Fund follows:

APPENDIX L

Report of the Cathedral Chapter

The Services, such as have been carried on at the Cathedral since its inception, have been provided during the past year. They are on Sunday, Holy Communion at nine a.m., Morning Prayer and Sermon at eleven a.m., with Evening Prayer and Sermon at four p.m. Now that the winter is past, it is hoped that groups from various Parishes of the Diocese will attend the Sunday afternoon Service.

In order that the Cathedral might perform a more effective service, the Bishop and Chapter have long felt the necessity of having a priest residing on the Cathedral grounds. To make this possible, there was need of providing a suitable dwelling. Two small adjoining houses were reconstructed into one that would be of permanent value as a Cathedral property. Last June, Bishop Hart appointed the Rev. William LaRue Witmer to this position and he is now resident at the Cathedral.

The work of the resident priest will be to conduct such Services at the Cathedral as are assigned to him and to minister to any who attend the Services and ask for his ministrations. He will visit among the families in the new houses being built adjacent to and beyond the Cathedral towards City line. He will make known the various Episcopal Churches in the area of Roxborough and Chestnut Hill to which families might desire to make permanent connections. He will be very willing to show individuals or groups through the present building and to explain the future plans for the extending of the structure.

The Cathedral offers a wonderful opportunity to make permanent thank-offerings and memorials to God's glory and the benefit of this great Diocese. All through the Christian centuries, the Bishop's Church has been the center and heart of the religious life of Clergy and People gathered within the Diocese. It can be made the greatest medium of spiritual growth of all people and it is to be hoped that the generosity of the people of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will soon make possible buildings adequate and of lasting beauty for this to become a fact in Philadelphia.

There is appended to this report the treasurer's report for the year 1950 which has been examined by Charles S. Rockey & Co., Certified Public Accountants, which report will be published in the Diocesan Journal.

Respectfully submitted,

Registrar and Canon Residentiary

JAMES M. NIBLO

APPENDIX M

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON RECTORS' SALARIES AND PENSIONS

There are times when the interests of an organization or some definite portion of its composition are best served by reviewing the full span of its existence. This has proven to be of unusual interest and illumination of particular activities in the life of the Diocese. Older Clergy and Lay Members of Convention pass on and newer men fill their places. The latter may be fully informed of the set-up of the Diocese and the particular activities of its various parts, but are not aware of the beginnings, the reasons for existence in the first place and the high lights of the work done over the past decades. These and other reasons were advanced at a recent meeting of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions for the decision to render to the Members of Convention this year a short account of the work done by this group in the name of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

History

In the Convention of 1887, attention was brought to the Deputies that several Rectors were not receiving a sufficient salary for livelihood. A Committee of twelve was appointed to study the situation, which Committee returned the following year a report that favored the adoption of some method for augmenting the salaries of underpaid Clergy. In fact, the report referred particularly to Missionaries and left out reference to parochial Clergymen. But in 1889 a resolution was introduced in that Convention that it was the sense of the Convention that all Clergy be provided with adequate salaries. This resolution was unanimously adopted and resulted in the appointment of a Committee of five to report the next year to Convention, the plan of which was to set "a goal of $1000.00 a year or $800.00 a year and rectory." Considerable discussion ensued as to details, several speakers citing the fact that the minimum salary of Presbyterian Clergymen was $900.00 a year and a manse, and that the Roman Catholic Clergy received $1000.00 a year and a house, "despite the fact they had no families to support." (This latter statement as to the sum received by the R. C. Clergy must have been wrong, for only ten years ago, the stipend was $800.00 a year.)

The Rev. Dr. Harris, Chairman of the Committee on Canons reported favorably to the Convention of the Diocese on May 8, 1890, on a Canon proposed by the Rev. John Bolton for the creation and operation of a Fund to be called the Sustentation Fund. Its purpose was to augment salaries of inadequately paid "Rectors of feeble Parishes," contributions to which were to be paid by Parishes annually; the gross sum to be fixed by Convention each year. This fund was to be administered by a Board of Stewards to be composed of two Clergymen, two Laymen, elected by Convention, along with the Bishop of the Diocese. The Board was to elect a Chairman and a Treasurer. The assessment on the Parishes was to be made on the same basis as that used for the Episcopal Fund.

Further provisions of the Canon stipulated that "no receiving Parish" need pay. No Rector was to receive any grant unless the Parish paid $500.00 a year or $400.00 and rectory. Nor was any salary to be augmented to more than $1200 a year. This grant was to be made upon the written application of the Vestry along with the written approval of the Rector, nor should anyone receiving salary from the Missionary Fund be eligible for a grant from this new fund. There was laid upon the Stewards the responsibility to satisfy themselves as to the necessities and merits of each case. The Board of Stewards were enjoined to report annually to the Diocesan Convention. The Canon was adopted on a vote of 73 ayes and 30 noes.

The following resolution was next presented. RESOLVED, That the Stewards of the Sustentation Fund shall this year request contributions from Parishes of the Diocese amounting in all to $3000.00." For sixty years now, a similar resolution has been introduced at each Convention, the amount varying from $3000.00 to $20,000.00, reflecting the number of Parishes requiring a grant to augment the salary of the Rector to the minimum given Clergy paid directly by the Diocese. The election of the first Board of Stewards resulted as follows: the Rev. R. E. Dennison, Chairman, the Rev. Isaac Gibson, Mr. George C. Thomas, Treasurer and Mr. R. Francis Wood, Secretary. These gentlemen, along with the Rt. Rev. Ozi W. Whitaker, D.D., formed the first Board of Stewards. They made grants for that year of $2365.88. It is interesting to note in their report for the first year that one Rector was mentioned as receiving only $560.00 a year salary, out of which he had to keep a horse in order to do his pastoral work. "Either that Parish must be abandoned to its fate or sustain it with the hope for its growth in the future."

The same sum of $3,000 was asked for the second year, out of which there is the record of the following grants: St. John's, Pequea, $250.; St. Martin's, Marcus Hook, $400.; St. John's, Concord, $500.; Calvary, Rockdale, $250.; Atonement, Morton, $300.; Holy Comforter, West Phila., $300.; St. Timothy, 8th and Reed Sts., $400.; a total of $2,400. The records show a change in the names of Parishes receiving grants from the Sustentation Fund, some remaining year after year, others either assuming full responsibility for the salary of the Rector, uniting with some other Parish or, as in a few instances, closing up entirely. The figure asked for each year remained below $5,000., until after 1920 when it began to increase to larger sums.

It is interesting to note that from the beginning until 1920, the number of Parishes aided stayed close to twelve. In 1917, thirteen Parishes received a grant of from $100 to $400 a year. The Commission asked for $3,500 for the year 1919, with which twelve Parishes were aided and in 1920, the resolution stipulated $3,500. Out of this amount, plus something over a thousand dollars of accumulated balances, ten Parishes were aided at a cost of over $4,000. The next year, 1922, saw a considerable increase in the number of applications, twenty-six Parishes receiving grants in amounts extending from $100 to $1,400. At the Convention of 1921, the Canon was amended so as to change the number of members from two Clergymen and two Laymen to three Clergymen and five Laymen; and the name was changed to the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Church Pensions. The work involved in the Diocese covering Pensions of the Clergy had been placed under this Commission when the Church Pension Fund was inaugurated. Another responsibility added to the work of the Commission was the duty of presenting to Convention from time to time such changes in the Clerical salaries paid by the Diocese, as were needed to meet the cost of living.

The year 1923 must have been a time of financial stress upon many Parishes. The Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, Rector of the Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia made a most moving appeal in Convention for an increase in Clerical salaries and the grant made to aided Parishes. He submitted figures to show that many Clergymen were having a difficult time financially and urged that a fund be collected to augment the grants now being given to increase the salaries of all Rectors who were in need of additional funds. He made it his business to solicit a considerable sum of money that was distributed wherever it was known of financial hardships among the Clergy.

Members of the Commission on Clerical Salaries were moved to make the highest appeal in the resolution calling for the assessment for the Sustentation Fund of 1924, the sum of $20,000. Along with this resolution, the Chairman of the Commission presented a number of changes in Canon VII, Section VI. The minimum salary for the year 1925 for Clergymen ten years in Holy Orders was advanced from $2,100 to $2,400 and rectory or $300 towards rental. In 1926, a Clergyman who had been eight years in the Ministry was to receive $2,100 and a rectory or $300 towards rental. Curiously, the number of applicants for grants this year dropped from twenty-six in 1922 to twenty-one, the amount of the grants ranging from $100 to $1,400.

The years 1924, 1925 and 1926 were important in the life of the Diocese as regards Clergy stipends. The Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions made recommendations for the increased salaries of the Clergy who looked to the Diocese for the payment thereof as well as for the Rectors of Aided Parishes, all of which was adopted by the three Conventions. The Rev. Dr. Pember and the Rev. Dr. Hartshorne, members of the Commission, most ably aided by the Rev. Dr. Johnston of the Church of the Saviour, West Phila., were the three men whose vision and hard work largely put through Convention this fair and honest plan for increasing the salaries of all the Clergy of the Diocese. I would like to quote a paragraph of the Rev. Dr. Pember's, the Chairman, report to the Convention of 1925. "A Further Step—The Commission reminds the Convention briefly of the history of our attempt to deal with the salary question. When the present scale of salaries was adopted, we knew from a careful survey that it would cost about $50,000 to put it into immediate operation.

That seemed a larger sum than we could reasonably expect to raise for the purpose. So for the first year we attempted only to reach half way to that goal, and estimated that it might cost the Diocese $30,000 to do even that much. There is no doubt that it did cost the Diocese from $30,000 to $50,000 to bring the salaries of the clergy up to that standard, but the Diocese as a whole through the Sustentation Fund has never had to pay more than $15,000 for the parishes, because the parishes themselves have responded generously to the ideal, and have themselves undertaken to pay at least the minimum, or a much closer approximation to it than they had been reaching in the past. So that venture of faith met a much larger measure of success than we had dared to hope."

During the next six years the asking of the Commission for the Sustentation Fund ranged between $15,000 and $20,000 a year. In 1928 the sum sought was $15,000 and by 1932 the Commission felt it could fully function on the sum of $10,000. During all this time, every member of the Commission, the three Clergy and five Laymen did excellent service. To the Laymen, particularly, was assigned the duty of visiting all the aided Parishes at the Sunday Services, to note the Congregations at worship as well as to talk with members of the Vestries and to report to the Commission any suggestions they might have gathered from such attendance and conversations .The Clerical members were assigned the duty of conferring with the Rectors and to be the contact persons in attendance at a Vestry meeting, when it was felt full cooperation on the part of the parish was not being maintained. All through the life of the Commission, the principle that the Parish should not ask for a grant to augment the Rector's salary until every avenue of income within the Parish had been explored has been made use of.

In the year 1933, the members of the Executive Council felt that the work of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions, particularly since the latter was deputized to present to Convention the matter of changes in Clerical Salaries and were obliged to supervise the Pensions of all the Clergy, were concerned with several matters closely allied to the work of the Council. Therefore it was proposed to the Commission that some sort of contact be made whereby the Council would be kept advised of that which would be of definite interest to the members of the Executive Council. A joint Committee worked out a plan that was incorporated into the Canons wherein the Council was given the right to elect three members of the Council each year to the membership of the Commission. This group of the Executive Council were obligated to make reports from time to time to the Council of contemplated plans or changes by action of the Commission, that had to do with such matters as concerned the Council. From the very first year, this plan made for a most harmonious working together of the Executive Council and the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions. The action proved worthwhile conversely, because on several occasions the Council made extra grants to the Vicars of the Diocese, which the members from the Council were able to report to the Commission, where similar action was taken by the latter on behalf of the Rectors in Aided Parishes, thereby giving the same benefits to all Clergy whose salaries were partly paid from Diocesan Funds.

So for sixty years the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions, though under several different titles, has functioned for the aiding of Parishes to pay the Rector the minimum salary as fixed by Convention and to supervise the paying of Clergy Pensions. From six Parishes being aided in the beginning, the number rose at one time to thirty-three. The Sustentation Fund was set at $3,000 the first years and reached the maximum amout of $20,000. For all these years Parishes finding themselves unable to pay the Canonical salary to their Rector, when they sought a grant from the Commission, were aided and given the opportunity to carry on for the benefit of the souls within that Parish and to work towards the goal of again being self sustaining. Fully sixty Parishes have made use of this privilege made possible by Convention and, as at the beginning, the number of aided parishes after these sixty years is again six.

Method of Making Appropriations

When the Commission was enlarged by having three members from the Executive Council added to its numbers by the change in Canon effected by the Convention of 1934, there was developed the thesis that the amount to be granted each aided parish must be determined by the amount the Vestry proved the Parish was unable to give that the rector's salary be fully met, up to the amount fixed by Canon. The Commission required from each Vestry making request for a grant such information and data as would clearly set forth the sum necessary to augment the rector's salary to the canonical amount. The first item was a complete budget, setting forth what income was expected from every possible source and likewise of the expenditures. A close scrutiny of this sometimes revealed a situation that should not exist. The members of the Commission would make suggestions for changing certain items which often resulted in savings which helped to increase the amount of money the parish could apply to the rector's salary. An example of this came from the budget of a certain parish where $1,500 was being spent on music and the application was being made for a grant of one half of the rector's salary of $1,800.

The second record required by the Commission was a detailed account of the Every Member Canvass held in the Parish seeking aid. It took several years to convince a few Parishes of the importance of this record. In fact, several parishes had held no such canvass and some had done so in a half hearted or poorly planned manner. By moral suasion, friendly visits with rector and vestries, very soon it was found that an honest to goodness Every Member Canvass was held in every Parish granted aid from the Sustentation Fund. Complete data as to the number of visitors taking part in the Canvass, the number of pledges obtained and the amounts secured for each side of the weekly envelopes gave a clear picture of the expected income from this source.

The Commission also required a statement from the Vestry, countersigned by the Rector as to whether the full canonical salary had been paid the Rector, if any grant had been made for the previous year. It was found that in a few instances the Rector had been receiving perquisites in the form of gifts of coal, automobile allowance, light, telephone and other forms of help from the Parish. The Commission computed the money value of these items and gave the parish credit for them in establishing the sum paid towards the salary of the Rector. It was pointed out in each instance that the Commission was dispensing funds that in many other parishes the rectors and people found it difficult to raise.

Pensions

Through all the years of the Clergy Pension Fund all parish problems relating to pensions of Clergy in the Diocese have been a part of the responsibility of the Commission. Reading through the reports of the early years, you soon become convinced that considerable education and persuasion had to be brought into operation to secure better understanding and cooperation on the part of Clergy and Vestries. There was considerable apathy on the part of some Clergymen as to their desire to come under the plan and there was some reluctance on the part of some vestries to fulfill their part of the contract. So it became a real task to prevent any possibility of the Commission having to pay premiums where it should and could be paid by the parishes.

It must be recognized that the Clergy Pension Fund has been a continuous expanding affair, increasing the normal pension from $600 a year for Clergymen to $1,000 a year and doing likewise for the widows of Clergymen, increasing from $300 to $400 a year. The $1,000 gratuity to the widows of Clergymen dying in active service, though not a part of the original plan and only assumed when the Fund had a considerable surplus, has been maintained through all the years. The authorities of the Fund made a ruling that it would not be paid in any Diocese if any parish therein had failed to pay at least one half its individual assessments for the previous year. That default could be made up from some other source and for years, the Commission saw to it that the credit of the Diocese in this respect was maintained, so that no widow entitled to the $1,000 gratuity failed to receive the same.

No one strove harder all through the years in this particular matter than did the late Rev. Dr. Francis C. Hartshorne, for a few years Chairman and for a long time Vice Chairman of the Commission in charge of the Pension affairs. He wrote innumerable letters and visited with vestries, had long conferences with the Clergy, who failed to realize the importance of having their pension premiums paid up. His deep concern for everyone involved, as well as respect for the handling of funds intrusted to the Commission caused him to strive in every way to bring the Diocese into a perfect position with the Clergy Pension Fund. The following figures will show how well he performed his task.

| | Amounts paid to "Protect" the Diocese |
|---|---|
| 1931 | $1,026 |
| 1932 | 2,355 |
| 1933 | 2,228 |
| 1934 | 2,120 |
| 1935 | 519 |
| 1936 | 92 |
| 1937 | 62 |
| 1938 | 60 |

During the last ten years not more than one or two Parishes had to be paid for and in these instances have later reimbursed the Sustentation Fund. And there have been three or four years lately when there has not been a single need. Practically every Parish in the Diocese has come to the realization of the importance of this matter and the older tactics of prodding has gone out of existence. But as our late vice-chairman often said, "here, as elsewhere eternal vigilance is the price of safety."

It is with a certain sense of pride that the records show that no Clergyman or Clergyman's widow in this Diocese has ever lost, even temporarily, one single penny of Church Pension Fund benefits by reason of any neglect on the part of the Commission. The same can be said of any Parish or Mission in the Diocese by failure to do its duty in paying Pension Assessments. Here again the reason lies in the vigilance of the Commission in persuading any vestry in default of Pension Assessments being warned of the consequences to the Clergyman or the widow. Let every Clergyman in the Diocese and all Vestries take notice that there is the danger of a Clergyman's widow losing the gratuity of $1000 should even one Parish or Mission fail to pay at least one half of the Pension Assessment for the year.

At the last General Convention, the Pensions for Clergymen were advanced from $1,000 a year to $1,500 and that of Clergymen's widows from $400 a year to $750. This has been done, even though it works an inequality in payments of assessments for Clergymen in the higher salary brackets in relation to the pensions they might receive, yet not one single protest was made by such Clergymen in this Diocese. It was pointed out to the Clergy that such was the case, but in every instance the Clergymen and their vestries accepted the plan, gladly making possible the inequality that all might enjoy these higher pensions.

Clerical Salaries

The higher cost of living presents the same problem to Clergymen and their families as it does to everyone else. The Executive Council passed a resolution early this year to give a gratuity of $150 to each Vicar, urging the Missions to make a similar gift. It has always been the custom of the Commission to do the same for Rectors of Parishes receiving a grant from the Sustentation Fund. This has been done and a resolution will be presented to Convention for confirmation of this action. One Parish making request for a grant has been temporarily refused until such time as the requirements of the Commission have been completed by the Vestry.

In a recent survey of salaries of the Clergy of this Diocese, it has been found that four receive an annual stipend of less than $3,000; 66 receive $3,000; 48 receive between $3,100 and $4,000; while 48 receive more than $4,000. After considerable discussion within the Commission, as well as with Clergymen not members of that body, it was decided that the best interests of the Clergy would be served by asking Convention to make provision for all the Clergy receiving whole or part of their salary from the Diocese and whose salary now is $3,000 or less, to have their present stipend increased by ten per cent, the same to become operative January 1, 1952. The Commission feels confident that its work, both in regard to augmenting salaries of Rectors and caring for any temporary pension assessment arrearage, can be provided for by an assessment of $6,000.

As chairman of the Commission of Rector's Salaries and Pensions I would take this opportunity of expressing on behalf of myself and the members of the Commission our deep appreciation of the fine support and help which Rectors, Vestries and Convention have given so generously to us in our work.

In behalf of the Commission on Rectors' Salaries and Pensions.

JAMES M. NIBLO
Chairman

Report of the Committee on Parochial History

This committee is charged with the duty of collecting, preserving and arranging such books, pamphlets, papers, and manuscripts relating to the history of the Church, particularly in this Diocese. Pursuant to that duty we have been endeavoring to collect historic booklets of those parishes which have recently observed anniversaries. Exhibits of these Anniversary Pamphlets are on display in the Church House.

A list of parishes and missions according to the dates of their foundings has been compiled and published in the Church News. In cases where no records are on file with the Committee, we have followed the date of admission into Convention. The Committee recommends that Parochial Reports contain a space for reporting the date of the first service of a parish or its founding.

Historical records become more valuable with the passing of years. In order to insure their preservation, in the midst of local parish changes, the Diocese should be furnished with copies of all histories and records of important events.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Wesley Twelves, Chairman

Report of the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library for 1950

During the past year eleven magazines were subscribed for and placed on the rack for public use. Sixty-four books were purchased and placed on the shelves. Approximately fifty books were out at a time. New, as well as other interesting and helpful, books were listed in each issue of the Church News. In an effort to increase the circulation, cards were mailed to the clergy, calling their attention to the use of the Library and asking them to announce this privilege to their people. The Library was also drawn to the attention of the laity by advertising in the Woman's Auxiliary Calendar.

As usual, during the summer, all books were cleaned and checked with the catalogue. Approximately four thousand volumes are placed on the shelves in Rooms 11 and 12, and the recent books are always found in Room 11. Books are in alphabetical order according to authors. The catalogue is on the third floor in Room 37, office of the Librarian. Books may be checked out and in at the Information Window, or with the Librarian. A phone call to the Librarian, or a visit, brings assistance in finding a book through the catalogue or on the shelves.

Corporation for Christian Work in Educational Institutions

Funds allocated by the Corporation have again this year helped support the work with Episcopal students at several colleges and universities in the diocese. These funds have been wholly provided from an appropriation in the diocesan budget, though a generous additional amount was raised for work at the University of Pennsylvania through the highly successful efforts of a committee acting independently of the Corporation. The importance of the work that is being carried on in our institutions of higher learning among the potential leaders of the church and of the community is obvious; and it is hoped that gifts to the Corporation from donors impressed by the significance of this work will eventually make possible a considerable reduction of the amount that needs to be appropriated for it in the annual diocesan budget.

On the initiative of the Executive Secretary of the Corporation a very successful diocesan conference for college students was held at All Hallows Church, Wyncote, on November 12, 1950, under the leadership of the Reverend Dr. C. Edward Hopkin. Approximately sixty students were present, representing nine institutions.

The diocese was represented by Mr. Joseph DiRaddo, of the University of Pennsylvania, and Miss Elizabeth Larsen, of Beaver College, at a national students conference held during the Christmas holidays at the Cranbrook School in Michigan. A constitution for a National Canterbury Association was adopted on that occasion; it provides that a Canterbury Commission be established in every diocese. Arrangements are therefore being made to hold a conference during April at Saint Mary's Church, Hamilton Village, for the organization of such a body.

The Reverend Allen F. Kremer, who for several years had served as Executive Secretary of the Corporation in addition to holding the position of chaplain of Episcopal students at the University of Pennsylvania, left early in February to become Chaplain and Associate Professor of Religion at Hobart and William Smith Colleges. The Corporation is deeply appreciative of his very efficient direction of its affairs. Plans for carrying on the two phases of his work under a somewhat different arrangement are still in the process of being worked out. Meanwhile, in the absence of an Executive Secretary, the activities of the Corporation are necessarily somewhat circumscribed.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR THE EPISCOPATE

Since March 1950, when the last preceding Report of the Committee was written, the Fund has received its first legacy: one of ten thousand dollars paid February 7, 1951, under the Will of Miss Emily Stewart Smith of Haverford, who died November 8, 1950. Other legacies will follow in time; we have no doubt of that because some testators have told us of their intention; but how many and how continuous they are will depend upon the publicity which the Fund is able to give to its purpose and importance. Please mention the Fund favorably as opportunity offers. A casual mention may bring in an important gift or bequest. Our folder "Making a Christian Will," is available on request, also "Questions and Answers," in which the purpose and management of the Fund are described.

The parish of St. Thomas, Whitemarsh, has again favored the Fund with the proceeds, this time $130., of a collection in favor of the Fund. We are happy to have this contribution, and to obtain the resultant publicity. Other gifts received since March 1950 have been:

Two hundred dollars from Dr. Lemuel T. Sewell, a member of the Committee, in memory of the Rev. Absalom Jones, the first negro ordained in this diocese, whose victorious struggle to obtain the education which would enable him to be ordained is an American hero story.

Five hundred dollars from Mrs. Arthur E. Newbold, Sr.

Fifteen dollars from Mrs. Robert Hartung.

Securities which netted more than nineteen thousand five hundred dollars from the chairman of the Committee.

On March 26, 1951, the principal of the Fund stood at $266,447.61, as against $241,761.19 on December 31, 1950, and $220,456.19 on December 31, 1949.

We have continued our half-page advertisement in The Church News, showing forms of gift, and have also published in the same paper six short articles on the Fund.

The Bishop of Michigan, in an article which appeared in one or more of the Church periodicals, has described a method which he has found useful for increasing the corresponding Fund in his diocese. At every visitation of a parish or mission, he announces that ten per cent. of the collection there taken for the use of the Bishop will be devoted to the Fund for the Episcopate. The amounts so realized are not important but the publicity is. After having conferred with Bishop Hart we submit for the consideration of Convention the following Resolution, adoption of which we recommend:

RESOLVED that the Bishop of the Diocese be and hereby is requested to consider the desirability of adopting the practice of having announcement made, at every episcopal visitation of a parish or mission, that ten per cent. of the collection then taken will be devoted to increasing the capital of the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate.

For the Committee,

SPENCER ERVIN, Vice-Chairman

Report of Church of the Advocate Committee

I. A special committee was created by action of the 1950 Diocesan Convention, the resolution reading:

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention authorize the Bishop of the Diocese to appoint a committee of five with power to add to their numbers, who shall study the opportunities for further use of this plant for diocesan purposes and also the possibilities of a closer relationship between the Diocese and the Church of the Advocate, and that this committee shall also consider plans concerning the Cathedral site in Roxborough during the next ten years, and who shall report to the Convention of 1951.

II. Subsequent to the Convention the committee was appointed and organized. In the interval it has met four times to consider the problems assigned to it. It solicited the views of all persons interested through an insertion in the October, 1950 Church News. After appropriate notice it held a meeting at the Church House open to all interested parties. Twenty-seven persons attended this open meeting in addition to the Bishop and the members of the committee.

III. Under the Resolution the general questions before the committee were two:

1. Opportunities for diocesan use of the Church of the Advocate and possibilities of closer relationship between the Advocate and the Diocese.
2. Plans concerning the Cathedral site for the next ten years.

IV. Proposal of the Church of the Advocate. This proposal was presented in both negative and positive forms. In order to make the positive suggestions more specific, the committee representing the Advocate expressly did not suggst that:

1. The executive offices of the Diocese or the headquarters of the Woman's Auxiliary be moved to the Advocate; nor that the Advocate become the cathedral of the Diocese.

2. The Roxborough cathedral project be abandoned nor that the legal steps be taken to liquidate the Cathedral Foundation.

3. The property and endowments of the Advocate be surrendered to the Diocese in order that they may be used by another parish.

4. The Diocese become financially responsible for the maintenance of the buildings of the Advocate, as trust funds are available for this purpose; nor that the Diocese assume the entire cost of maintaining activities carried on there.

5. The congregation of the Advocate be dissolved, nor that the personnel be transferred to other parishes.

The positive proposals were as follows:

1. The Church of the Advocate be given a diocesan status either through arrangement with the Cathedral Chapter under authority of Canon 17, or as the Convention may otherwise direct.
2. The Church be designated as "THE DIOCESAN CHURCH OF THE ADVOCATE" (George W. South Memorial Church of the Advocate) thus retaining the corporate name of the church as well as denoting its diocesan standing.

A three-fold program to be carried on at 18th and Diamond Streets by the Diocese consisting of the following:

(a) Special services sponsored by the Department of the Diocese and other groups within the Diocese, including teaching missions as well as musical services—all services to be under the control of the Bishop of the Diocese in order to reflect the norm of the Diocese.

(b) Conferences and institutes sponsored by the Departments, for the purpose of further developing lay leadership, including classes in evangelism.

(c) Community projects sponsored by the Diocese, such as a demonstration Church School, Neighborhood Council, Daily Vacation Bible School in cooperation with other religious groups, student work in colleges and schools in North Philadelphia, and family counselling.

It was suggested that the estimated cost to the Diocese might be as low as $3,000 or $6,000 per year depending upon the amount of use.

V. Conclusions and Recommendations concerning the Advocate proposal. After personal inspection of the facilities of the Advocate, consideration of a mass of pertinent information supplied on behalf of the Advocate, and the oral and written views of interested parties, the committee has concluded, and therefore recommends to the Convention:

1. That the Church of the Advocate should not be given a diocesan status at this time.

2. That the Diocese should as circumstances warrant, make greater use of the beautiful Church and extensive facilities of the Church of the Advocate for Special Services and other diocesan activities which cannot be adequately handled elsewhere, paying therefor to the Church of the Advocate an equitable sum for each such use.

3. That diocesan activities which can be adequately carried on and housed at the Church House shall continue there and for the time being the Annual Diocesan Convention continue to be held at the Church of the Holy Trinity.

VI. Conclusion concerning Cathedral plans. After consideration of the views, plans, hopes and activities of the many interested in one way or another in the Roxborough Cathedral project, the committee has concluded at this time that:

1. No permanent arrangement should be made with the Church of the Advocate or any other parish or organization which would interfere in any way with the development and use of the Cathedral site at Roxborough.

2. The program at the Cathedral site as now developed should remain in the hands of the Bishop as provided in Canon 17.

So believing, no recommendations are deemed necessary to be made to the Convention on this section of the committee's assignment.

Respectfully submitted,

REV. RICHARD LYFORD

MAJ. GENERAL MILTON G. BAKER
